

MINISTRY OF FINANCE
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MEDIA ADVISORY

2018 NATIONAL BUDGET TIPS

MAKE YOUR OPINION KNOWN AND IDEAS HEARD

The Minister of Finance, Malusi Gigaba, will deliver his maiden Budget Speech amid subdued economic growth and a challenging fiscal situation. It is in this context that the Minister encourages South Africans to share their views about the country's economic conditions and other issues they would like government to highlight in the Budget, which will be tabled in parliament on 21 February 2018.

The Minister invites South Africans to share their views on;

- Funding of free education for students in tertiary institutions;
- How South Africa can achieve inclusive economic growth;
- How South Africa can use its resources to ensure efficiencies; and
- How the government, civil society, unions and business can work together for the purpose of achieving South Africa's economic objectives.

The Minister looks forward to your contribution which can be sent through the following ways:

- Tweet your tips and include the hashtag #BudgetTips2018, and Follow @TreasuryRSA
- The National Treasury website: Budget 2018 TIPS

Issued by the Ministry of Finance

Date: 05 February 2018

