TREASURY RECEIVES DRAFT FORENSIC REPORT ON TEGETA

Further to the announcement of 4 August 2017, National Treasury has received the draft forensic report on the alleged irregularities in the awarding by Eskom of a coal contract to Tegeta and in Transnet's procurement of locomotives from China South Rail. The report has been given to the relevant parties for comment. These parties have been given two weeks to respond.

Treasury will make the report public once it has reviewed all the comments.
