HOW TO ADVERTISE IN THE GOVERNMENT TENDER BULLETIN

1. FORM No. 1: This form must always be submitted to us when you want to advertise in the tender bulletin. Your tender description in the 1st column.

The place where and/or which Department requires the tender in the 2nd column

The Department Tender No. in the 3rd column. Each Department allocate their own Tender numbers.

The tender closing date in the 4th column—the closing date should be 4–6 weeks from publication date, except with special recognition from the Tender Board.

Your address list number (which we will submit to you after you have completed Form No. 2) in the 5th and 6th columns.

If the tender closes at the Tender Board's Offices, their number (Tender Board's number) should appear in Column 6.
2. FORM No. 2: Complete this form together with Form No. 1, when you advertise for the first time, to receive your own tender address list number.
3. FORM No. 3: This form is only for your own records, choose from this list the right section under which you want your tender to be published and write this section in at the space provided next to Supplies:..... Services:..... Disposals:..... on Form No. 1 (also mark with an X next to less than R75 000 or more than R75 000, whichever is applicable).

DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS AND TOURISMBID NUMBER: E 1010*APPOINTMENT OF A CONSULTANT FOR THE DEVELOPING AND IMPLEMENTATION OF BRIDGING TRAINING FOR ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT INSPECTORS

The Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism (DEAT) invites specialist professionals and consulting firms who have demonstrable experience in the field of enforcement training to submit bids in respect of the development and presentation of high quality, accredited bridging training for Environmental Management Inspectors (EMIs) to be designated in 2005/early 2006 in terms of Chapter 7 of the National Environmental Management Act (Act No. 107 of 1998), and the development and revision of appropriate course material for such bridging training.

In essence, the successful bidders will be required to do the following:

- In respect of one or more training modules, develop training course material which will form part of a high quality EMI Manual which will assist and provide guidance to EMIs in their daily work;
- present one or more high quality training modules as part of a high quality, intensive 11-day bridging training course for existing environmental compliance monitoring and enforcement officials designated or to be designated as EMIs in 2005, presented in five national centres between October 2005 and February 2006;
- on completion of the training, revision and amendment of training course material based on student feedback; and
- where the training module or modules are not South African Qualification Authority (SAQA) accredited unit standards customised for EMI Training, procure SAQA accreditation within six months after presentation of the training.

The training modules are the following (a detailed outline for each module is contained in the Terms of Reference):

Module 1: Introduction to South Africa Law for EMIs (full-day course).

Module 2: Becoming and EMI (full-day course).

Module 3: Integrated Environmental Management for EMIs (half-day course).

Module 4: Basic Health & Safety for EMIs (half-day course).

Module 5: Routine Inspections for EMIs (two-day course).

Module 6: Administrative Justice in Environmental Enforcement (one-day course).

Module 7: Investigations, Enforcement and Court Action (four-day course).

Module 8: EMI networks, resources and inter-personal skills (one-day course).

Bidders can submit bids for one or more of the training modules specified in the Terms of Reference, but must be available to present the modules for which they submit bids at every training session. Preferred bidders should ideally be accredited with SAQA.

The project is expected to have a duration of no longer than twelve (12) months.

Interested bidders should collect bid documents from the Department: Environmental Affairs and Tourism, Fedsure Forum, corner Pretorius and Van der Walt Streets, Pretoria.

The deadline for submission of the bid is 2 September 2005 at 11:00
