HUMAN SCIENCES RESEARCH COUNCIL

BID No. HSRC/03/CONFR/2009

REQUEST FOR A PROPOSAL TO BE ON THE PANEL OF SERVICE PROVIDERS FOR COORDINATION OF HSRC CONFERENCES/EVENT MANAGEMENT

PROJECT DELIVERABLES

Depending on the specific project, management will include all or aspects of the project and implementation of the strategic issues of conference planning as well as general co-ordination of the conference and exhibition as follows:

- Prudent financial management of the event and accountability to PFMA requirements.
- Timely provision of services and goods of quality and at the cheapest rates.
- Marketing and communications in order to optimize attendance and impact of the conference.
- Affordable, all-inclusive project management fees.
- Available networks and databases of regionally-based service providers.
- Available infrastructure including capability of conference operations through an electronic website for registration and payment.
- Co-ordination of all exhibition and if project specific, sales thereof.
- Providing a dedicated conference coordinator to participate on the HSRC project planning committees, and working with the HSRC team in developing the event.
- Coordination of logistics of the conference and the exhibition, including:
 - Developing a data base of invitees.
 - Sending out invitations for participants.
 - Receiving and co-ordinating of RSVPS with daily feedback to HSRC.
 - Coordinating abstracts and papers with stipulated time frames, and making these available for delegates.
 - Following up with delegates to finalise flight times and issuing of most cost effective flights and arrangement of airport transfers.

- Compilation of delegate and rooming lists.
- Coordinating necessary facilities and equipment, including:
 - Provision of the most economic and professional shuttles service.
 - Sourcing best and cost effective service providers (transcribers, translators, branding and printing, conference bags, pens, gifts, tags, etc).
 - Ability to show products fit in with the corporate responsibility mandate of the HSRC.
 - Coordination of programme material and supporting documentation—assisting with the compilation of pre-conference background material and finding best methods of distribution, be it via print or electronic methods, such as CD.
 - Coordination of entertainment.
 - Packaging of conference bags.
 - Printing name tags, name boards.
 - Coordinating sound and IT requirements.
 - Coordinating dinner arrangements, florist delivery, etc.
 - Facilitating payments for service providers accounts.
- Onsite representation: Dedicated onsite presence at the event, including welcome desk at airport, registration, onsite travel desk.
- Logistical management during conference, obtain quotations for local and international flights and other miscellaneous items where necessary.
- At the conclusion of the project to reconcile accounts and provide a project management report including actuals and invoices to proving financial accountability to project shareholders.

SELECTION PROCESS

- A written proposal that includes a project estimate for the above services and deliverables.
- Outline of the process and approach you would take if you were to be appointed. Additionally, an indication of proof of how you would use your own funds and claim for the work done, e.g. flights and hotel reservations.
- Portfolio with three projects you are particularly proud of, with contactable references.
- Experience or evidence of conference management and planning as well as managing a conference with a budget of over R500,00.
- Company profile that includes your companies' history, vision, mission, location, software, staff profile who will be directly involved with the core responsibilities of conference planning and management (senior, middle and lower levels and staff qualifications), and whether you have the capacity in-house to plan and manage such a conference, or whether you have to outsource.
- Collaboration with BEE firms.
- Links to networks in African countries.
- An original Tax Clearance Certificate.
- Financial background: audited financial statements over the past two years.
