KWAZULU-NATAL DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SETTLEMENTS

TOLARAM HOUSE

INVITATION FOR REGISTRATION ON THE DEPARTMENTAL DATABASE OF SUPPLIERS OF ALTERNATIVE/INNOVATIVE BUILDING SYSTEMS

The Provincial Department of Human Settlements is in the process of creating a database of service providers for alternative technology building systems to expedite delivery of a range of low income and affordable markets. The database will be used to gather information on the availability of alternative technology building systems that are available. Whilst the database aims to gather information of suitably certified alternative building systems in the market, these systems might be utilized in various projects throughout the Province, in partnership with the municipalities and communities, and would be subject to normal procurement processes, on a project by project basis. Applicants are to note that only products that are Agreement certified and/or comply with the deemed to satisfy rules as contemplated in the National Building Regulations and/or SANS codes will be considered. NHBRC compliance also needs to be taken into account. Applicants are to complete the relevant forms and indicate the availability and/or willingness to construct show houses.

It is imperative that suppliers read application document carefully, complete it in full and sign. Those who will comply with the requirements will be registered in the Alternative Technologies Database. Applicants are to note that registration does not constitute an obligation to award tenders, but that normal procurement processes and community and municipal consultation and requirements will apply at that stage.

The documents to be collected from the following office:

Department of Human Settlements, Supply Chain Management,
Tolaram House, 5th Floor, Room 512, 2 Samora Machel Street (Aliwal Street), Durban.
Electronic forms are available on the Department Website: www.kznhousing.gov.za
