Details of adjustments to 2004 Estimates of National Expenditure

Roll-overs – R48,182 million

Programme 1: Administration

R7,146 million has been rolled over for the educational needs of victims identified in the Truth and Reconciliation Commission process and for the additional office accommodation at the Waterbron building required as a result of the restructuring of the department.

Programme 2: Systems Planning

The roll-over of R22,474 million is for the completion of the Thuba Makote school building project and for the extension of the leave audit and registry projects processes in Eastern Cape province.

Programme 3: General Education

R17,332 million has been rolled over for: the HIV and Aids and early childhood development conditional grants in Eastern Cape, withheld during 2003/04; the training of provincial and district officials with regard to the early childhood development project; delayed payments for the Masifunde Sonke project; the distribution of the revised national curriculum statements (RNCS); delayed payments for the Ikhwelo project; the delivery of literacy classes in selected provinces by the South African National Literacy Initiative (SANLI); and the payment of late invoices for the printing of roles and responsibilities leaflets.

Programme 5: Quality Promotion and Development

R1,230 million has been rolled over for payment of late invoices for contractual services: to analyse data and write a report on a survey conducted on the systemic evaluation project; and for the Ngoma Festival and athletics events linked to the '10 Years of Freedom' celebrations.

Details of savings realised on the above programmes

Programme 1: Administration

Savings of R7,897 million are due mainly to funds centralised in this programme for policy development committees and distributed to the appropriate programmes.

Programme 6: Higher Education

Savings of R24 000 were realised on various items under goods and services.

Programme 7: Auxiliary and Associated Services

Savings of R10,350 million were realised on UNESCO membership fees due to the favourable rand/dollar exchange rate and a decrease in membership fees because the United States has joined UNESCO and contributes substantially.

Utilisation of savings to augment the above programmes

Programme 2: Systems Planning

R1,527 million will mainly cover the additional expenditure of the Committee for Rural Education.

Programme 3: General Education

R75 000 will be used for compensation of employees.

Programme 4: Further Education and Training

R2,721 million will be used to cover additional expenditure on the writing and implementation of the further education and training (FET) curriculum.

Programme 5: Quality Promotion and Development

R13,948 million will mainly be used to cover expenditure on the '10 Years of Freedom' celebrations, the school choral eisteddfod and Freedom Day activities.

Funds shifted within a programme

Programme 6: Higher Education

R641 000 under goods and services was reprioritised to cover the higher expenditure on compensation of employees for vacant posts that were filled.

Other adjustments – R11,956 million

Shifting of funds between votes

Programme 1: Administration

R2,146 million will be transferred to the Department of Public Works to cover office accommodation costs at the Waterbron building.

Programme 2: Systems Planning

R500 000 will be transferred to the Department of Science and Technology for the task team that will work on a strategy for services to improve access, employment and trade.

Self-financing expenditure

Programme 3: General Education

The Education Labour Relations Council donated R12 million for the completion of the Ikhwelo project. Multi Choice donated R400 000 for the teacher awards project. These funds have been deposited into the National Revenue Fund.

Programme 4: Further Education and Training

The Education Labour Relations Council donated R1,096 million for the historical records and security system of the examination function. These funds have been deposited into the National Revenue Fund.

Programme 5: Quality Promotion and Development

The Education Labour Relations Council donated R1,106 million for school enrichment programmes and the gender equity committee. These funds have been deposited into the National Revenue Fund.
