 (2) A penalty imposed as mentioned in subsection (1) is payable within 30 days from the date on which it was imposed.

Adjustments of estimated royalty

15. (1) The Commissioner may require a registered person to justify any estimated amount paid by that person as mentioned in section 5 or to furnish particulars in respect of that amount and, if the Commissioner is dissatisfied with that amount, the Commissioner may substitute an estimate of an increased amount in lieu of the estimated amount paid as mentioned in section 5 to the extent that the Commissioner considers reasonable. 5

(2) If a registered person fails to submit any estimated amount as required by section 5, the Commissioner may estimate that amount.

(3) Any estimate made by the Commissioner under subsection (1) or (2) is deemed to take effect in respect of the year of assessment within which the estimated amount in respect of that estimate is required to be paid in terms of section 5. 10

(ii) the date of receipt of a refund claim mentioned in section 13 in respect of that excess. 25

(2) A registered person must pay interest calculated on a monthly basis—

10

Short title and commencement

21. This Act is called the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Royalty (Administration) Act, 2008, and comes into operation on 1 May 2009.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE MINERAL AND PETROLEUM RESOURCES ROYALTY (ADMINISTRATION) BILL, 2008

1. OBJECTS OF BILL

The Mineral and Petroleum Resources Royalty (Administration) Bill, 2008 (this Bill), accompanies and seeks to provide for administrative matters pertaining to the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Royalty Bill, 2008 (the Royalty Bill).

2. BACKGROUND

To ensure that South Africa receives just compensation for its non-renewable resources, it is envisaged that persons who extract mineral resources from within the Republic must pay a royalty on the first transfer of those mineral resources. All extractors would be liable for this royalty, whether they hold a mineral resource right under the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, 2002 (Act No. 28 of 2002), or illegally extract mineral resources without such a right. This Bill seeks to provide that all extractors (companies or individuals) must register with the South African Revenue Service for purposes of payment of the royalty. Provision is made to pay the royalty twice per year (i.e. roughly every six months) with a final top-up (third) payment paid within six months after that year.

3. SUMMARY OF BILL

Definitions: Clause 1

Clause 1 provides definitions for terms used in this Bill. If a word has been defined in the Royalty Bill, it has the same meaning in this Bill.

Registration: Clause 2

Clause 2 seeks to provide that extractors that hold a mineral resource right as of 1 May 2009 or that are engaged in extracting mineral resources without such a right on or after that date must register with the Commissioner.

Cancellation of registration: Clause 3

Clause 3 seeks to provide for cancellation of a person's registration on application.

Election for unincorporated body of persons: Clause 4

Multiple parties sometimes hold various fractional percentage interests in one or more mineral rights. This joint holding can be in the form of a partnership, a pooling arrangement, a joint venture or some other unincorporated body. Without the incorporation of special provisions into this Bill, all mineral resource transfers by an unincorporated body would subject each member of the body to a royalty charge because each member would be an extractor that is subject to a royalty charge. To prevent the inadvertent triggering of a royalty charge in respect of each member of an unincorporated body, clause 4 seeks to provide that a jointly held unincorporated body is treated as a single extractor. Thus, the royalty in respect of mineral resources transferred by an unincorporated body is determined independently of any of the members of an unincorporated body.

Payments in respect of estimated royalty: Clause 5

In order to determine the royalty payable under the proposed Royalty Bill, an extractor must estimate its gross sales and earnings derived from those gross sales in respect of transferred mineral resources. A provisional payment system (similar to the provisional payment system contained in the Income Tax Act) is proposed to collect the royalty. Clause 5 of this Bill seeks to provide that an extractor must submit two estimates (two payments) in respect of the royalty payable for each year of assessment (i.e. roughly every six months).

Submission of return and final payment: Clause 6

Clause 6 seeks to provide that an extractor must submit one final top-up (third) payment in respect of the estimated payments paid for a year of assessment as mentioned in Clause 5.

Form, manner and place determined by Commissioner: Clause 7

Clause 7 proposes that the Commissioner of SARS administer the submission of returns, forms, and payments.

Maintenance of records: Clause 8

Clause 8 proposes that persons submitting 6-monthly returns must retain sufficient books and records for the Commissioner to verify compliance. These books and records must be maintained for a minimum of 5 years.

Notices of assessment: Clause 9

This Bill proposes a self-assessment system. If the Commissioner has reason to believe that sufficient tax has not been paid, this clause proposes a notice of assessment (in which the Commissioner may estimate the royalty payable) be sent to an extractor. This notice of assessment is subject to objection and appeal.

Reduced assessments: Clause 10

In clause 10 it is proposed that the Commissioner have the power to reduce assessments without the formal objection and appeal process. This power exists in the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962) and the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991 (Act No. 89 of 1991).

Withdrawal of notices of assessment: Clause 11

Clause 11 proposes that the Commissioner has the power to withdraw notices of assessment without the formal objection and appeal process. This power exists in the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962) and the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991 (Act No. 89 of 1991).

Time limit for notices of assessment: Clause 12

This Bill proposes a five-year time limit for notices of assessment. This five-year period begins to toll only after the submission of a return to which that assessment period relates. Thus, if a return is not submitted, the time limit for assessment continues indefinitely. Finally, if a return is submitted, the five-year time limit does not apply if the Commissioner has reason to believe that failure to pay the royalty stems from fraud, misrepresentation or non-disclosure of material facts.

Refunds: Clause 13

Clause 13 provides that refunds for overpayment of the royalty may be claimed within a five-year time limit.

Penalty for underestimation of royalty payable: Clause 14

For anti-avoidance purposes, clause 14 proposes that if the final payment of the royalty payable for a year exceeds the sum of the two payments for that royalty, and that excess (i.e. difference) is greater than 10 per cent of that final payment, the Commissioner may impose up to a 20 per cent penalty on that excess.

Adjustments of estimated royalty: Clause 15

For anti-avoidance purposes, clause 15 proposes that the Commissioner may increase an estimated amount of royalty paid or make an estimate of an estimated amount of royalty payable.

Interest: Clause 16

Clause 16 proposes that interest calculated on a monthly basis be payable on underpayments and overpayments (as the case may be). The interest rate will be determined in terms of section 1 of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962).

Administration of Act: Clause 17

Clause 17 proposes that the responsibility for administering this Bill and the Royalty Bill (when enacted) be conferred on the Commissioner.

Applicability of Income Tax Act: Clause 18

Clause 18 proposes that administrative processes falling within the purview of this Bill (when enacted) be covered by reference to the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962). Decisions by the Commissioner are subject to objection and appeal.

Reporting: Clause 19

Clause 19 proposes that for each year of assessment, a registered person must submit to the Minister of Finance a report advising the Minister of the volume of mineral resources that registered person transferred, its gross sales of mineral resources transferred and its rate (in percentage terms) in respect of the royalty payable.

Regulations: Clause 20

Clause 20 proposes that the Minister of Finance may prescribe regulations with respect to any matter necessary to administer this Bill and the Royalty Bill (when enacted).

Short title and commencement: Clause 21

Clause 21 provides for the short title and a commencement date of 1 May 2009.
