securities with a specific provision of the listing requirements for a limited period and on conditions determined in the approval, if—

- (i) practicalities impede the strict application of a specific provision; or
- (ii) the delay is justified in furtherance of the national government's objective to encourage participation in the financial markets:

Provided that the delay in compliance does not impede the objectives of this Act;

- (d) may, when granting an application referred to in paragraph (b) or at any time thereafter, in consultation with the registrar, impose conditions in addition to those provided for in the listing requirements, on an issuer of securities, if—
    - (i) necessary or desirable to facilitate the sustainability of that issuer; or

(2) An exchange must, subject to subsection (3), before a removal or suspension referred to in subsection (1)—

- (a) inform the issuer of its intention to remove or suspend;
- (b) give the issuer the reasons for the intended removal or suspension; and
- (c) call upon the issuer to show cause, within a period specified by the exchange, why the removal or suspension should not be effected.

(3) If the listing requirements, any conditions imposed under section 10(8)(c) or (d) or the exchange rules are not complied with or if a circumstance arises which the exchange rules or the listing requirements envisage as a circumstance justifying the immediate suspension of trading, an exchange may, subject to subsection (1), order an immediate suspension referred to in that subsection for a period not exceeding 30 days, which period may be extended for further periods of 30 days.

(4) If the trading of listed securities has been suspended in terms of this section, an exchange may, despite subsections (1) and (3), permit authorised users to buy and sell those securities for the sole purpose of fulfilling their obligations entered into in relation to those securities before the suspension.

(5) (a) If an issuer requests an exchange to remove its securities from the list but the exchange considers the securities to be eligible for continued inclusion in the list, the removal must be approved by the holders of those securities in a manner specified by the exchange and the exchange must be satisfied on reasonable grounds that the interests of minority holders of the securities have been considered.

(b) An issuer must provide reasons for the request contemplated in paragraph (a).

(6) (a) If an exchange refuses an application for the inclusion of securities in the list under section 10(8)(b), or under subsection (1) removes securities from the list, the exchange concerned must immediately notify every other exchange in the Republic of the reasons for and date of the refusal or removal.

(b) If the refusal to list securities was due to any fraud or other crime committed by the issuer, or any material misstatement of its financial position or non-disclosure of any material fact, or if the removal of securities was due to a failure to comply with the listing requirements of the exchange, no other exchange in the Republic may, for a period of six months from the date referred to in paragraph (a), grant an application for the inclusion of the securities concerned in the list kept by it, or allow trading in such securities, unless the refusal or removal is withdrawn by the first exchange or set aside on appeal by the appeal board in terms of section 107.

(c) If an exchange withdraws a refusal or removal before the expiry of the six months, it must notify the issuer and every other exchange in the Republic. 5

Application of amended listing requirements to previously listed securities

12. (1) Amended listing requirements may be applied by the exchange to securities listed before the amendment of the listing requirements, by notice in writing to the issuer of such listed securities.

(2) Listing requirements so applied take effect from a date determined by the exchange, which date must not be earlier, except when special circumstances justify an earlier date, than one month after the date on which the exchange so notifies the issuer, but the exchange may postpone the former date on written request by the issuer. 10

(3) If an exchange refuses a request for a postponement in terms of subsection (2) the issuer concerned may make representations in writing to the registrar, and if the request for a postponement is reasonable, the registrar may, after consultation with the exchange, postpone the date on which the listing requirements take effect by not more than three months and must inform the exchange accordingly in writing. 15

Disclosure of information by issuers of listed securities

13. (1) (a) An exchange may require an issuer of listed securities to disclose to it any information at the issuer's disposal about those securities, or about the affairs of that issuer, if such disclosure is necessary to achieve one or more of the objects of this Act referred to in section 2. 20

- (b) Where the registrar has amended the rules of a self-regulatory organisation under 25 paragraph (a), the registrar must—
- (i) inform the Minister of the amendment, giving reasons for the amendment and explaining the imperative referred to in paragraph (a)(i); and
  - (ii) give reasons for the amendment, and explain the imperative referred to in paragraph (a)(i), in the Gazette and on the official website. 30
- (5) (a) Subject to prior approval of the registrar, a self-regulatory organisation may suspend any of the rules of that organisation for a period not exceeding 30 days at a time after reasonable notice of the proposed suspension has been advertised on the official website.
- (b) The registrar may, for the period of such suspension, issue an interim rule by 35 notice in the Gazette to regulate the matter in question.
- (c) Any contravention of or failure to comply with an interim rule, has the same legal effect as a contravention of or failure to comply with a rule.
- (6) (a) The rules may prescribe that a self-regulatory organisation, or a person to whom the self-regulatory organisation has delegated its disciplinary functions, may 40 impose any one or more of the following penalties for any contravention thereof or failure to comply therewith:
- (i) A reprimand;
  - (ii) a censure;

- (i) full particulars regarding the imposition of a penalty must be published on the website of the self-regulatory organisation or through the news service of the 60 self-regulatory organisation or through a market notice, if any;

- (ii) any person who has contravened or failed to comply with the rules, may be ordered to pay the costs incurred in an investigation or hearing conducted in terms of the rules;
  - (iii) a self-regulatory organisation may take into account at a disciplinary hearing any information obtained by the registrar in the course of an inspection conducted under section 97; 5
  - (iv) a self-regulatory organisation, or a person to whom a self-regulatory organisation has delegated its disciplinary functions, may, upon good cause shown, and subject to the conditions it may impose, vary or modify any penalty which it may previously have imposed upon any person, but that in varying or modifying such penalty, the penalty may not be increased. 10
- (7) If a person fails to pay a fine referred to in subsection (6)(a), the self-regulatory organisation may file with the clerk or registrar of any competent court a statement certified by it as correct, stating the amount of the fine imposed, and such statement thereupon has all the effects of a civil judgment lawfully given in that court against that person in favour of the self-regulatory organisation for a liquid debt in the amount specified in the statement. 15
- (8) This section does not prejudice the common law rights of a person aggrieved by a contravention of or failure to comply with a rule to claim any amount except to the extent that any portion of such amount has been recovered under subsection (6). 20
- (9) The rules must prescribe the purpose for which a fine referred to in subsection (6) must be appropriated.

- 82. (1) No person—
- (a) may, either for such person's own account or on behalf of another person, directly or indirectly use or knowingly participate in the use of any manipulative, false or deceptive practice of trading in a security listed on a regulated market, which practice may, if executed, create— 15

- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a claimant must receive an amount—
- (a) equal to the difference between the price at which the claimant dealt and the price, determined by the Enforcement Committee, that the claimant would have dealt at if the inside information had been published at the time of dealing; or 5
  - (b) equal to the pro rata portion of the balance referred to in subsection (2)(b), calculated according to the relationship which the amount contemplated in paragraph (a) bears to all amounts proved in terms of subsection (3) by claimants, whichever is the lesser, unless the claims officer in his or her discretion determines that the claimant should receive a lesser or no amount. 10

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE FINANCIAL MARKETS BILL, 2012

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The Financial Markets Bill, 2012 (“the Bill”), seeks to replace the Securities Services Act, 2004 (Act No. 36 of 2004) (“the SSA”).
- 1.2 The Bill gives effect to the outcomes of a regular legislative review of the SSA. The SSA took effect on 1 February 2005. It governs the regulation of securities services in South Africa and primarily focuses on the regulation of securities exchanges, central securities depositories, clearing houses and their members. It consolidated the South African regulatory framework relating to capital markets and aligned the regulation and supervision of South African financial markets with the then prevailing international developments and regulatory standards.
- 1.3 Subsequent to its enactment, the SSA had not been subjected to a comprehensive review to assess if it is still sufficiently robust to meet its objectives and the objectives of securities regulation in general. Further, local and international developments, the recent global financial crisis and implementation challenges demanded a review of the appropriateness and effectiveness of the regulatory approach and framework provided for in the SSA.
- 1.4 A review of the SSA was, therefore, undertaken. The review assessed whether the SSA was still sufficiently robust to continue to meet its objectives and the objectives of securities regulation in general, was aligned with relevant local and international developments and standards, and was and is effective in mitigating the impact of the financial crisis and any potential future financial crisis.
- 1.5 The review highlighted a number of critical provisions that must be given effect to in legislation to ensure that the integrity of the regulatory framework of the South African financial markets is maintained, and more specifically that the regulatory framework continues to meet its objectives and that the objectives of financial regulation in general is aligned with local and international developments and standards, and remains effective in mitigating the potential impact of any possible future financial crisis.
- 1.6 Due to the number of amendments to the SSA necessitated by the review, the need to update references to legislation and institutions, address interpretational and operational challenges, align with the Companies Act, 2008 (Act No. 71 of 2008), and to incorporate certain principles of the UNIDROIT Convention on Substantive Rules for Intermediated Securities into domestic legislation, it was deemed appropriate, in the interest of simplicity and legal certainty, to replace the SSA, rather than propose a complex amendment Bill. [UNIDROIT, set up in 1926 as an auxiliary organ of the League of Nations, was re-established in 1940 based on a multilateral agreement, the UNIDROIT Statute. South Africa is one of its 59 Member States. UNIDROIT’s purpose is to study needs and methods for modernising, harmonising and coordinating private and, in particular, commercial law between states and groups of states.]

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

The Bill aims to—

- 2.1 increase confidence in the South African financial markets by—
  - requiring that securities services be provided in a fair, efficient and transparent manner; and

- contributing to the maintenance of a stable financial market environment;
- 2.2 promote the protection of regulated persons and clients;
  - 2.3 reduce systemic risk; and
  - 2.4 promote competition in and the international competitiveness of securities services in the Republic.

3. SUMMARY OF BILL

The Bill has 12 chapters, which can be summarised as follows:

- 3.1 Chapter I contains the relevant definitions and sets out the objects of the Bill. It also indicates how and to whom the Bill and rules made thereunder apply, and prohibits certain activities.
- 3.2 Chapter II provides for the powers and functions of the Registrar and Deputy Registrar of Securities Services (both referred to as “the registrar”). It furthermore provides that the Minister may prescribe the circumstances under which the external providers of securities services may render such services.
- 3.3 Chapter III deals with the licensing of an exchange, the functions of an exchange, the funding of an exchange, the rules of an exchange, listing requirements, removal of listings and disclosures by issuers of listed securities, the specific obligations of authorised users and the use of the term “stockbroker”. It also deals with the buying and selling of listed securities and the reporting of off-market transactions in listed securities.
- 3.4 Chapter IV deals with central securities depositories (“CSDs”), including the licensing of a CSD, the functions of a CSD, the rules of a CSD and the duties of participants. It further deals with uncertificated securities, and the functions of an issuer of uncertificated securities. General matters relating to the custody and administration of securities are addressed.
- 3.5 Chapter V deals with the licensing of a clearing house as an independent or associated clearing house. It also deals with the functions of a clearing house, the rules of an independent clearing house and the amalgamation, merger, transfer or disposal of an associated clearing house.
- 3.6 Chapter VI provides for the establishment of a trade repository, to which all trades in unlisted instruments will be reported. In doing so, it sets out the licensing and operational requirements of the trade repository, as well as its function.
- 3.7 Chapter VII deals with self-regulatory organisations. The Bill confers the status of a self-regulatory organisation on exchanges, CSDs and independent clearing houses. This Chapter also deals with—
  - matters relating to the licences, corporate form, ownership, amalgamation, merger, transfer or disposal of self-regulatory organisations;
  - requirements for and obligations of a member of the controlling body of a self-regulatory organisation;
  - the rules of a member of a self-regulatory organisation; and
  - the reporting and disclosures by a self-regulatory organisation.
- 3.8 Chapter VIII provides that the registrar may prescribe a code of conduct for authorised users, participants or clearing members of independent clearing houses.

- 3.9 Chapter IX deals with general provisions relating to listed and unlisted securities. It authorises the registrar to regulate trading in unlisted transactions and prohibit undesirable advertising or canvassing relating to securities.
- 3.10 Chapter X prohibits market abuse and deals with the functions of the Directorate of Market Abuse in dealing with offences relating to market abuse.
- 3.11 Chapter XI obliges regulated persons to have audited financial statements, deals with the role and functions of the auditor, the powers of the registrar and the courts in ensuring compliance with the legislation (such as inspections, on-site visits, referrals to the enforcement committee, orders, winding-up and business rescue).
- 3.12 Chapter XII provides for general provisions, which include the powers of the registrar and the courts to ensure compliance with the legislation (such as inspections, on-site visits, referrals to the enforcement committee, orders, winding-up and business rescue), offences and penalties and matters relating to fair administrative action, right to appeal, the certification of documents, regulations and savings.

4. DEPARTMENTS OR BODIES CONSULTED

- 4.1 The National Treasury and the Financial Services Board have engaged extensively with the JSE Ltd and Strate Ltd, in their capacity as self-regulatory organisations.
- 4.2 The Department of Trade and Industry has been consulted in the context of its legislation and the impact of this on financial services regulation more generally.
- 4.3 The FMB was presented at the Economic Sector and Employment Director-General and Ministerial clusters, on the 2nd and 17th of March 2011, respectively, where it received general support from the represented departments.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

None.

6. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 6.1 The State Law Advisers and the National Treasury are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or section 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 6.2 Furthermore, the State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities
