PREAMBLE

WHEREAS current customs legislation has not kept pace with technological advances and does not fully reflect the modern standards of the Revised Kyoto Convention and other related international instruments to which the Republic has assented;

AND WHEREAS the Revised Kyoto Convention and these other related international instruments serve as a model framework for modern, efficient and cost-effective customs control and simplified customs procedures and formalities;

AND WHEREAS there is a need for establishing a new legislative framework for the further development and reform of customs legislation in an open and democratic society;

AND WHEREAS the mere amendment of current legislation will not achieve the desired result of modernisation and transformation of customs legislation and the simplification of customs procedures and formalities;

AND WHEREAS customs administration plays a critical role within the context of international trade and tourism in ensuring effective controls that secure revenue recovery, facilitation of legitimate trade and protection of society at large;

AND WHEREAS customs procedures and formalities should be efficient, transparent and predictable for carriers, importers, exporters, traders, travellers and other persons involved in or affected by customs procedures and formalities and not impede legitimate international trade, economic competitiveness and the movement of people and goods across national boundaries;

AND WHEREAS a new legislative framework must achieve a balance between effective customs control, the secure movement of goods and people into and from the Republic and the facilitation of trade and tourism;

AND WHEREAS there is a need to establish legislation that can serve as a “platform” for the implementation of various other laws that impose taxes on goods, and laws that prohibit, restrict or control the import or export of certain goods;

B E IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

(4) This section does not apply to prohibited, restricted, sectorally controlled and counterfeit goods, and such goods must be dealt with in accordance with Chapters 35 and 36.

Consequences in event of failure to clear goods imported through places of entry<sup>65</sup>

92. (1) If no clearance declaration is submitted in terms of section 90(1) or (3) in respect of imported goods to which section 89 applies within the period or at the time applicable to those goods, or if such goods were diverted for home use before the period for submitting the clearance declaration has elapsed, the goods must—

- (a) be dealt with in accordance with section 570(1)(a), read with section 580;<sup>66</sup> or
- (b) for tax purposes be regarded to be cleared for home use under Chapter 8<sup>67</sup> if the goods were—
  - (i) diverted for home use; or
  - (ii) damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for and it is not proved in accordance with Chapter 25—
    - (aa) that the goods were damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for due to a recognised cause;<sup>68</sup> and
    - (bb) in the case of goods lost due to a recognised cause, that the goods, after having been lost, have not gone into home use in any way.

(2) The burden to prove for purposes of this section that a clearance declaration to clear goods for home use or a customs procedure has been submitted to the customs authority within the period or at the time applicable to the goods, rests on the person who alleges this fact.

(3) Subsection (1) applies apart from any criminal proceedings that may be instituted, administrative penalty that may be imposed or other step that may be taken by the customs authority in terms of this Act for any breach of section 89 or 90, which may include, where not inconsistent with this Act or other applicable legislation or otherwise inappropriate—

- (a) seizing the goods in terms of Chapter 34;
- (b) allowing the importer of the goods to abandon the goods to the Commissioner in accordance with Chapter 26; and
- (c) allowing or directing the importer—
  - (i) to remove the goods from the Republic; or
  - (ii) to destroy the goods under supervision of the customs authority or an organ of state designated by the customs authority.

68. See definition of “recognised cause” in section 1.

70. The following customs procedures provide for the export of goods under that procedure subject to clearance for export in terms of the export procedure:

1. The temporary admission procedure in terms of Chapter 12, in relation to goods cleared and released for that procedure in terms of Part 2 of that Chapter;

- (a) if the goods are to be exported by sea, not later than two hours before the goods are delivered to—
    - (i) a container depot, in the case of goods to be containerised for export by sea at a container depot; or 20
    - (ii) the sea cargo terminal where the goods will be loaded on board the foreign-going vessel in which the goods are to be exported, in the case of all other goods, including goods containerised for export by sea otherwise than at a container depot; 25

    - (iii) a locomotive or railway carriage leaving the Republic under its own power or on its own wheels, before the locomotive or railway carriage 50

71. The temporary admission and temporary export procedures provide on the outbound leg of the procedure for the clearance of certain goods for export under a carnet issued in terms of an international customs arrangement.

72. Note that the prescribed minimum time periods for submission of export clearance declarations may on good grounds shown be shortened in specific cases in terms of section 909.

It should also be noted that while the submission of export declarations may meet the time frames stated above, it may be advisable to submit declarations earlier in order to ensure that a customs documentary inspection of the goods will not prevent the goods from being exported at the intended time.

- reaches the rail border crossing where the locomotive or railway carriage will cross the border out of the Republic; or
- (iv) a vehicle leaving the Republic under its own power or on its own wheels, before the vehicle leaves the land border post where the vehicle will cross the border out of the Republic. 5

- (a) at a container depot and to which subsection (1)(a)(i) applies, an incomplete clearance declaration meeting the requirements of section 171(1)(a) to (d), but without indicating the container number, may be submitted, provided that a supplementary declaration which includes the container number is submitted 10 within a timeframe as may be prescribed by rule before the container reaches the sea cargo terminal where the goods will be loaded for export; or
- (b) other than at a container depot and to which subsection (1)(a)(ii) applies, a clearance declaration meeting the requirements of section 171(1)(a) to (d) may only be submitted after the container has been sealed. 15
- (3) The timeframes in subsection (1)(a) to (d) do not apply to goods of a specific class or kind or falling within a specific category as may be determined by rule that are in terms of section 93 required to be cleared for export, and for clearing such goods a clearance declaration meeting the requirements of section 171(1)(a) to (d) must be submitted to the customs authority within such other timeframe as may be prescribed by 20 rule read with sections 908 and 909.

73. Exclusion of the goods listed in section 95 from export clearance requirements does not have the effect of exempting the goods from customs control. The goods remain subject to customs control for as long as a condition stated in section 28 applies to the goods.

74. South African trucks, buses and taxis temporarily leaving the Republic are not excluded from export clearance requirements, but may in terms of sections 381 and 382 be cleared for temporary export in accordance with simplified clearance requirements.

Consequences in event of failure to clear for export goods in free circulation<sup>78</sup> 45 through places of exit<sup>79</sup>

- 96. (1) If goods in free circulation to which section 93 applies are—
- (a) delivered to a cargo terminal referred to in section 94(1)(a), (b) or (c) without any clearance declaration having been submitted in terms of that section to clear the goods for export, the goods must be dealt with in accordance with section 570(1)(b), read with section 580;<sup>80</sup> or 50

76. International postal articles to be exported by private couriers must be dealt with as if ordinary exported goods. See Part 1 of Chapter 24 for clearance of express delivery goods.

77. See also section 754 for detention of such goods.

78. This section is confined to goods in free circulation as the consequences for goods exported under a customs procedure otherwise than in accordance with that procedure, are dealt with in sections 114 and 115.

79. For consequences when goods are exported otherwise than through places of exit see section 42.

80. Removal of the goods to a state warehouse.

(b) exported from the Republic without any clearance declaration having been submitted in terms of section 94 to clear the goods for export, the goods must for tax purposes be regarded to have been cleared for outright export.<sup>81</sup>

(2) The burden to prove for purposes of this section that a clearance declaration to clear goods for export has been submitted to the customs authority, rests on the person who alleges this fact. 5

(3) Subsection (1)(b) may not be read as affecting the application of section 112 or 113 in relation to goods under a customs procedure referred to 93(2)(b) or (c) that were exported without an export clearance.

(4) Subsection (1) applies apart from any criminal proceedings that may be instituted, administrative penalty that may be imposed or other step that may be taken by the customs authority in terms of this Act for any breach of section 93 or 94, which may include, where not inconsistent with this Act or other applicable legislation or otherwise inappropriate— 10

(b) allowing the exporter of the goods to abandon the goods to the Commissioner in accordance with Chapter 26; or

(c) allowing or directing the exporter to destroy the goods under supervision of the customs authority or an organ of state designated by the customs authority.

97. (1) Goods that are cleared for home use may at any time before the release of the goods for home use be cleared for a permissible customs procedure.

(2) Goods that are cleared for a customs procedure may at any time before the release of the goods for that customs procedure be cleared for any other customs procedure or for home use, as may be permissible<sup>83</sup> in the circumstances. 25

(3) A clearance declaration to clear the goods for home use or a customs procedure in terms of subsection (1) or (2) submitted to and accepted by the customs authority in terms of section 171(1) replaces the previous clearance declaration with effect from the time the previous clearance declaration was originally accepted by the customs authority in terms of that section.<sup>84</sup> 30

(4) If a clearance of goods for—

(a) home use is replaced in terms of subsection (3), the person who paid any import tax on the goods as a consequence of that clearance for home use is entitled to a refund of that tax subject to the applicable tax levying Act; or

(b) outright export is replaced in terms of that subsection, the person who received any refund of domestic tax on the goods as a consequence of that clearance for outright export must repay that refund to the Commissioner subject to the applicable tax levying Act. 35

Part 2

General principles governing release of goods for home use or customs procedures 40

Clearance of goods precondition for release of goods

98. No goods may be released for home use or a customs procedure without the goods having been cleared for home use or that customs procedure, except where provided otherwise in this Act.<sup>85</sup>

81. For tax implications if goods in free circulation are regarded to be cleared for outright export, see section 158.

82. This section applies only to clearance substitutions before release of the goods. For clearance substitutions of goods already released for home use, see section 107, and for clearance of goods under a customs procedure for another customs procedure, see section 110.

83. See definition of “permissible” in relation to a customs procedure and in relation to home use.

84. If the goods are only partially cleared for another customs procedure or for home use, the existing clearance declaration must be amended in terms of section 174(2) to apply to that part of the goods that remain cleared for the existing procedure or for home use.

85. Exceptions to this principle contained in Chapter 24 which provides for expedited release of goods.

When release of goods must be refused<sup>86</sup>

- 99. (1) The customs authority must refuse the release of goods cleared for home use or a customs procedure—
- (a) if the clearance of the goods for home use or that customs procedure was not permissible in terms of this Act or a tax levying Act; 5
  - (b) if the release of the goods for home use or that customs procedure—
    - (i) is not permissible in terms of this Act or a tax levying Act;
    - (ii) would result in a breach of this Act or a tax levying Act; or
    - (iii) would defeat the objects of any other legislation applicable to the goods;
  - (c) if the goods are in terms of section 570(1) or (2), read with section 580, to be removed to a state warehouse in order to be dealt with in accordance with Chapter 27; or 10
  - (d) if the goods were seized or confiscated in terms of—
    - (i) this Act<sup>87</sup> or a tax levying Act; or
    - (ii) any other legislation or an order of court and the customs authority has been informed of the seizure or confiscation. 15
- (2) (a) The customs authority may, despite anything to the contrary in subsection (1) but subject to section 105, release goods on an assumption that facts and circumstances presented by the person clearing the goods are correct.<sup>88</sup>
- (b) Goods may not be released in terms of paragraph (a) if the customs authority is aware of the fact that the presentation of facts and circumstances is incorrect. 20
- (3) A refusal to release goods in terms of subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) is a ground for the detention of the goods in terms of section 754 if the goods are not already detained on any other ground.

When release of goods may be refused<sup>89</sup> 25

- 100. (1) The customs authority may refuse the release of goods for home use or a customs procedure if such refusal is necessary for—
- (a) effectively implementing this Act or a tax levying Act;
  - (b) preventing abuse of any systems and procedures of this Act or a tax levying Act; or 30
  - (c) giving effect to national legislation or policy on—
    - (i) international trade;
    - (ii) the protection of public health;
    - (iii) the protection of the environment; or
    - (iv) public safety. 35
- (2) A refusal to release goods in terms of subsection (1) is a ground for the detention of the goods in terms of section 754 if the goods are not already detained on any other ground.

When release of goods may or must be withheld

- 101. (1) The customs authority may withhold the release of goods for home use or a customs procedure until— 40
- (a) a requirement of this Act, a tax levying Act or any other legislation applicable to the goods or the clearance of the goods has been complied with;
  - (b) any pre-condition imposed in terms of section 103 for the release of the goods has been met; 45
  - (c) any tax or any other money payable to the Commissioner in respect of those goods has been paid to the Commissioner; or
  - (d) any security required for the payment of any such tax or other money in respect of the goods has been provided to the Commissioner.

86. For consequences if release of goods is refused, see section 106.

87. See Chapters 34, 35 and 36 for the seizure and confiscation of goods in terms of this Act, including the conditions for terminating seizures and confiscations.

88. Release of goods on the assumption that the self-assessment of tax payable on goods is correct does not affect the customs authority's power to do an assessment after the release. See Chapter 5 of the Customs Duty Act.

89. For consequences of refusal to release goods, see section 106.

- (2) The customs authority must withhold the release of goods for home use or a customs procedure whilst the goods are detained in terms of—
- (a) this Act<sup>90</sup> or a tax levying Act; or
  - (b) any other legislation or an order of court and the customs authority has been informed of the detention. 5
- (3) Withholding of the release of goods in terms of subsection (1) is a ground for the detention of the goods in terms of section 754 if the goods are not already detained on any other ground.

Release of goods pending technical analysis, expert advice or civil or criminal proceedings 10

- 102. (1) The customs authority may not delay the release of goods cleared for home use or a customs procedure by reason only that—
- (a) an inspection of the goods require a technical analysis of, or expert advice on, the goods or any matter relating to the goods;
  - (b) civil proceedings relating to the goods between the Commissioner and any other person are pending; 15
  - (c) an offence involving those goods has allegedly been committed and criminal investigations or proceedings relating to those goods are pending; or
  - (d) the goods are the subject of proceedings in terms of Chapter 37.
- (2) Subsection (1) may not be read as affecting or preventing the implementation of section 99, 100 or 101. 20

Preconditions for release of goods

- 103. The customs authority may impose such preconditions for the release of goods for home use or a customs procedure as may be necessary to ensure—
- (a) that a provision of this Act, a tax levying Act or any other applicable legislation is complied with; 25
  - (b) that any import or export tax payable or that may become payable on the goods is or will be paid; or
  - (c) the payment of any security that may be required.

Conditional release of goods 30

- 104. The release of goods for home use or a customs procedure is subject to such conditions—
- (a) as the customs authority may in a specific case impose to ensure compliance with a provision of this Act, a tax levying Act or any other applicable legislation; or 35
  - (b) as may be prescribed by rule.

When release of goods must or may be withdrawn<sup>91</sup>

- 105. (1) The customs authority must withdraw the release of goods for home use or a customs procedure—
- (a) if the release given was impermissible in terms of section 99; 40
  - (b) if, in the case of a release for a customs procedure, the goods are diverted for home use;
  - (c) if the goods are seized or confiscated in terms of—
    - (i) this Act or a tax levying Act; or
    - (ii) any other legislation or an order of court and the customs authority is informed of the seizure or confiscation; or 45
  - (d) in any other circumstances specifically provided for in this Act or a tax levying Act.
- (2) The customs authority may withdraw the release of goods for home use or a customs procedure— 50
- (a) if any condition subject to which the goods were released is breached;

90. See Chapters 34, 35 and 36 for the detention of goods in terms of this Act, including the conditions for terminating seizures and confiscations.

91. For consequences of withdrawal of a release see section 106.

- (b) if, in the case of a release for a customs procedure, a provision of this Act or a tax levying Act applicable to that procedure is breached;
  - (c) if withdrawal of the release is necessary for—
    - (i) effectively implementing this Act or a tax levying Act in relation to those goods;<sup>92</sup> 5
    - (ii) stopping in relation to those goods any abuse of a system or procedure of this Act or a tax levying Act; or
    - (iii) giving effect to national legislation or policy on—
      - (aa) international trade;
      - (bb) the protection of public health; 10
      - (cc) the protection of the environment; or
      - (dd) public safety;
  - (d) if the goods are detained in terms of this Act, a tax levying Act, any other legislation or an order of court; or
  - (e) in any other circumstances specifically provided for in this Act or a tax levying Act. 15
- (3) The release of goods may not be withdrawn in terms of subsection (2) on account of a clearance declaration that is invalid in terms of section 172 if the clearance declaration can be and is validated by an amendment in terms of section 174.
- (4) A withdrawal of a release of goods is a ground for the detention of the goods in terms of section 754 if the goods are not already detained on any other ground. 20

Consequences of refusal to release or withdrawal of release of goods

- 106. (1) If the customs authority refuses to release goods for home use or a customs procedure in terms of section 99 or 100 or withdraws the release of goods for home use or a customs procedure in terms of section 105, it may, depending on the circumstances, allow the person clearing the goods—<sup>93</sup> 25
- (a) to clear the goods in terms of section 97(1) or (2) for home use or a specific customs procedure that will not render release of the goods subject to a refusal; or
  - (b) to amend the clearance declaration in terms of section 174 if release of the goods was refused or withdrawn because of a rectifiable error on the clearance declaration. 30
- (2) When allowing a person to clear goods or to amend a clearance declaration in terms of subsection (1), the customs authority may require the goods to be cleared or a clearance declaration to be amended within a period determined by it. 35
- (3) (a) Any import or export tax paid on the goods as a consequence of a clearance that is replaced in terms of subsection (1)(a) may in accordance with the tax levying Act regulating that tax be refunded to the person who paid that tax if the customs authority in terms of that subsection allows the goods to be cleared for a customs procedure that has a tax free status in relation to such import or export tax.<sup>94</sup> 40
- (b) Paragraph (a) does not apply if the tax levying Act regulating the relevant tax provides otherwise.
- (4) This section applies apart from any criminal proceedings that may be instituted, administrative penalty that may be imposed or other step that may be taken by the customs authority in terms of this Act or a tax levying Act if the release was refused or withdrawn because of a breach of this Act or a tax levying Act committed in connection with the goods, which step may include, where not inconsistent with this Act or other applicable legislation or otherwise inappropriate— 45
- (a) applying section 570(2), read with section 580, to the goods;
  - (b) seizing the goods in terms of Chapter 34; 50
  - (c) allowing the person who cleared the goods to abandon the goods to the Commissioner in accordance with Chapter 26;
  - (d) allowing or directing the person who cleared the goods—
    - (i) to remove the goods from the Republic, in the case of imported goods; or
    - (ii) to destroy the goods under supervision of the customs authority or an organ of state designated by the customs authority. 55

92. Included here are the conditions and requirements contained in the tax levying Acts subject to which goods may be cleared and released for specific customs procedures.

93. For person clearing goods, see section 166.

94. For tax status of goods under the various customs procedures, see Chapter 6.

Clearance and release substitutions for goods released for home use<sup>95</sup>

107. (1) Goods that have been released for home use may, despite such release, be cleared and, subject to sections 99 and 100, released for a permissible customs procedure.

(2) Goods that have been released for home use may be cleared and released for a customs procedure in terms of subsection (1) only if the clearance declaration is submitted to and accepted by the customs authority in terms of section 171(1) within 90 calendar days from the date of release of the goods for home use. 5

(3) A clearance declaration to clear the goods for a customs procedure submitted to and accepted by the customs authority in terms of section 171(1) replaces the home use clearance declaration with effect from the time the home use clearance declaration was originally accepted by the customs authority in terms of that section.<sup>96</sup> 10

(4) If the clearance and release of goods for home use is replaced in terms of subsection (1) the person who paid any import tax on the goods as a consequence of the previous clearance is entitled to a refund subject to the applicable tax levying Act. 15

Effect of release of goods for home use or customs procedures

108. (1) (a) Goods unconditionally released for home use become, upon their release, goods in free circulation.

(b) Goods conditionally released for home use become, upon compliance with the condition, goods in free circulation. 20

(2) Goods released for a customs procedure remain subject to this Act despite the release and may not be dealt with otherwise than in accordance with—

(a) the provisions of this Act or a tax levying Act<sup>97</sup> applicable to that customs procedure; and

(b) any conditions as may be applicable to the goods in terms of section 104. 25

Part 3

General principles governing goods under customs procedures

Commencement and ending of customs procedures

109. (1) A customs procedure in relation to goods—

(a) commences when the goods come under that customs procedure; and 30

(5) If ownership of goods under a customs procedure is transferred with the approval of the customs authority in accordance with subsection (1)— 25

(a) the transfer does not—

(i) interrupt the continuation of that procedure; or

(ii) affect the tax status conferred on the goods by virtue of that procedure; and 30

(b) the new owner of the goods or, if only a share in the ownership of the goods has been transferred, the person to whom that share has been transferred—

  - (c) in any other circumstances specifically provided for in this Act or a tax levying Act.
- (2) The customs authority may direct that goods under a customs procedure that were in free circulation when the goods came under that procedure must for tax purposes be regarded to have reverted to free circulation—

107. See definition of “recognised cause” in section 1.

108. For tax implications if goods are regarded to be cleared for outright export, see section 159.

(2) When applying subsection (1) to goods exported under a customs procedure in circumstances where the ground for regarding the exported goods to be cleared for outright export pertains only to a part of those exported goods, only that part of the exported goods must in terms of that subsection be regarded to be cleared for outright export.<sup>109</sup> 5

(3) This section may not be read as affecting the application of section 112 or 113 in relation to goods under a customs procedure.

Other consequences of non-compliance with provisions applicable to customs procedures

115. Section 112, 113 or 114 applies apart from any criminal proceedings that may be instituted, administrative penalty that may be imposed or any other step that may be taken by the customs authority in terms of this Act for a breach of a provision applicable to customs procedures generally or to the relevant customs procedure, which may include, where not inconsistent with this Act or other applicable legislation or otherwise inappropriate— 10 15

  - (j) in the case of goods under a customs procedure that are to be cleared for another customs procedure or for home use, the reference number of the clearance declaration submitted for clearing the goods for that customs procedure; and 15
  - (k) such additional information as may be required on the prescribed form or by this Act or a tax levying Act.
- (2) Any other type of clearance declaration must contain the information—
- (a) required for a regular clearance declaration in terms of subsection (1) except— 20
    - (i) as provided otherwise in this Act; or
    - (ii) to the extent exempted by rule; or
  - (b) required for that type of clearance declaration in terms of this Act or as may be prescribed by rule.
- (3) Clearance declarations of the different types must be in a form and format as may be prescribed by rule,<sup>167</sup> except where determined otherwise in terms of this Act for the specific type of clearance declaration. 25

How and where to submit clearance declarations

- 168. (1) A clearance declaration must be submitted to the customs authority electronically in accordance with section 913 unless the person submitting the declaration is authorised in terms of that section, or falls within a category of persons authorised by rule, to submit a document manually in paper format. 30
- (2) A clearance declaration submitted in paper format must—
- (a) be completed, signed and certified by the person who submits the clearance declaration; 35
  - (b) consist of the signed original and a number of copies as may be prescribed by rule; and
  - (c) be submitted to the customs authority—
    - (i) at the Customs Office serving the customs controlled area where the goods are to be released for home use or a customs procedure; or 40
    - (ii) at any other Customs Office designated in terms of section 14 to receive clearance declarations.

Time of day when clearance declarations may be submitted

- 169. A clearance declaration—
- (a) transmitted electronically in accordance with section 913, may be transmitted at any time; or 45
  - (b) submitted in paper format may be submitted to the customs authority at the Customs Office referred to in section 168(2)(c) only during that Office's hours of business.

Submission of clearance declarations before arrival of goods at place of entry 50

- 170. (1) A clearance declaration in relation to goods imported or to be imported into the Republic may be submitted to the customs authority before the arrival of the goods at the place referred to in section 90, provided that the goods have already been loaded on board the vessel, aircraft, railway carriage or vehicle transporting those goods to the Republic.

(2) If a clearance declaration is received before the goods arrive at the place referred to in section 90, the customs authority may proceed with processing and validating the declaration despite the fact that the goods have not yet arrived at that place but may not release the goods before their arrival at that place. 5

Acceptance of clearance declarations by customs authority

171. (1) The customs authority must accept a clearance declaration submitted to it and issue a receipt to the person who submitted the declaration if—

- (a) the declaration is in the form and format prescribed for the specific type of clearance declaration;<sup>168</sup> 10
- (b) all the information required on the form or otherwise prescribed for the specific type of clearance declaration is furnished;<sup>169</sup>
- (c) the declaration is signed by or on behalf of the person submitting the declaration, if required for the specific type of clearance declaration; and 15
- (d) the declaration is submitted by a person entitled to submit the declaration.<sup>170</sup>

(2) The customs authority must refuse acceptance of a clearance declaration if the declaration does not comply with subsection (1).

(3) Acceptance of a clearance declaration in terms of subsection (1) may not be regarded as release of the goods for home use or the required customs procedure. 20

Validity of clearance declarations

172. (1) A clearance declaration accepted in terms of section 171(1) is despite such acceptance invalid if any of the information required on the form or otherwise prescribed for the specific type of clearance declaration<sup>171</sup> is incorrect but the declaration may be validated by an amendment in terms of section 174. 25

(2) An amendment of a clearance declaration validates the declaration from the date of submission of the declaration, but such validation of the declaration does not affect any criminal proceedings that may be instituted, any administrative penalty that may be imposed or any other steps that may be taken as a result of the submission of an incorrect declaration. 30

Determination of time of clearance of goods

173. (1) For the purposes of this Act or a tax levying Act, the time of clearance of goods for home use or a customs procedure must be taken as the time when a clearance declaration in respect of the goods which complies with the requirements set out in section 171(1) is accepted by the customs authority in terms of that section. 35

(2) The time of clearance in terms of subsection (1) is not affected if the clearance declaration is amended in terms of section 174.

(3) If the clearance of goods is substituted in terms of section 97 or 107 the time of clearance of the goods must be taken as the time applicable to the goods in terms of section 97(3) or 107(3). 40

Amendment of clearance declarations

174. (1) (a) If a person clearing goods for home use or a customs procedure becomes aware, whether before or after the release of the goods, of any incorrect or incomplete information or other error on the declaration, that person must promptly submit to the customs authority an amended version of the clearance declaration to replace the version of the declaration containing the error.<sup>172</sup> 45

(b) The customs authority may accept or refuse to accept an amended clearance declaration submitted to it in terms of paragraph (a) but may not refuse such acceptance

168. See section 913 for electronic submission of clearance declarations.

169. The official form should require at least all the information referred to in section 167.

170. See section 165 and other relevant sections specifying the persons who are entitled to submit clearance declarations.

171. For information required on the official form for clearance declarations, see section 167.

172. The submission of an amended declaration does not affect the time of clearance. See section 173(2).

if it has not yet commenced with either the verification of the information on the clearance declaration that is to be amended or the inspection of the goods to which that clearance declaration relates.

(2) If any of the circumstances pertaining to goods cleared for home use or a customs procedure change, the person clearing the goods must update any information on the clearance declaration to reflect the changed circumstances by promptly submitting to the customs authority an amended version of the clearance declaration reflecting the change to replace the existing version of the declaration.<sup>173</sup> 5

(3) If the customs authority becomes aware, whether before or after the release of any goods, of any incorrect or incomplete information or other error, or any out-dated information, on the clearance declaration submitted in respect of the goods, it may direct the person clearing the goods to correct the error or to update the information by submitting to it, within a period specified in the direction, an amended version of the clearance declaration to replace the version of the declaration containing the error or the out-dated information. 10 15

(4) An amended version of a clearance declaration of goods that—

- (a) have not yet been released replaces the existing version of the declaration when the customs authority releases the goods; or
- (b) have already been released replaces the existing version of the declaration when the customs authority issues a new release notification replacing the previous release notification. 20

(5) This section—

- (a) may be applied for amending—
  - (i) clearance declarations accepted by the customs authority in terms of section 171(1); or 25
  - (ii) amended clearance declarations submitted in terms of this section; and
- (b) may not be applied for replacing—
  - (i) a clearance for home use with a clearance for a customs procedure; or
  - (ii) a clearance for a customs procedure with a clearance for another customs procedure or for home use.<sup>174</sup> 30

Withdrawal of clearance declarations

175. (1) A person clearing goods for home use or a customs procedure may withdraw a clearance declaration submitted in respect of the goods if—

- (a) the goods are cleared in terms of section 170 and the goods do not arrive at the place referred to in section 90; 35
- (b) that clearance declaration is a duplicate clearance declaration that was erroneously submitted in respect of the same goods;
- (c) in the case of goods under a customs procedure, the goods are intended to remain under the customs procedure for which the goods are currently released; 40
- (d) this Act provides for the withdrawal of a clearance declaration in any specific circumstances; or
- (e) the customs authority on any other justifiable grounds gives permission to that person to withdraw the clearance declaration.

(2) The customs authority may in any of the circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(a) to (d) direct the person clearing the goods to withdraw the clearance declaration. 45

173. For instance if part of the goods were destroyed or lost, or if part of the goods are cleared for another customs procedure or for home use, or if part of the goods are abandoned.

174. Clearance substitutions cannot be effected through mere amendment of the existing clearance declaration. In such cases the clearance declaration must be replaced by a new clearance declaration reflecting the new clearance. See section 97 for clearance substitutions of goods before release of the goods, section 107 for clearance substitutions of goods after release of the goods, and section 110 for clearance of goods under a customs procedure.

Supporting documents

- 176. (1) No person may clear goods for home use or a customs procedure unless the clearance is supported by—<sup>175</sup>
- (a) an invoice issued in respect of the goods by the person who—
    - (i) exports the goods to or from the Republic; or 5
    - (ii) supplied the goods that are exported to or from the Republic;

- (3) For the purposes of this Act and a tax levying Act no change in the condition of the goods may be regarded as having occurred between the time when imported into the Republic and the time of any examination or analysis of the goods by the customs authority unless the person who submitted the clearance declaration provides proof of a change in the condition of the goods and the extent thereof. 50
- (4) A person clearing goods must in a manner and within a timeframe as may be prescribed by rule notify the customs authority of— 55
- (a) any change in—

- (2) An invoice supporting the clearance of goods for home use or a customs procedure may be amended— 25
- (a) if the invoice needs to be split for any reason, including for purposes of facilitating tax administration; or

- (3) An invoice may be amended by the issuing of— 30
- (a) an amended invoice replacing the previous one; or

  - (b) if the customs authority refuses to accept the amendment.

- 179. A person clearing goods must—
- (a) keep, in a manner and for a period as may be prescribed by rule—
    - (i) the documents referred to in section 176 supporting the clearance of the goods, including any amended documents; and 50

Part 2Standard release processes and requirements<sup>178</sup>Release notifications

- 180. (1) Goods are released by the customs authority for home use or a customs procedure by transmitting electronically a message that the goods have been released to— 5
- (a) the person clearing the goods or who submitted the clearance declaration; and
  - (b) the release agent.
- (2) The customs authority may instead of electronically transmitting a release notification to a person referred to in subsection (1)(a), issue to that person a computer printout of the notification. 10
- (3) A release notification must indicate—

  - (b) the customs authority may hold the release agent liable for any tax payable on those goods.
- (3) Goods released in terms of section 180 for a customs procedure must be removed from the place where the goods were released within the period applicable to the goods in terms of the provisions of this Act regulating that procedure. 30

- (a) a message stating that the release has been withdrawn; 5
  - (b) a new release notification stating that it replaces the previous release of the goods for home use with a release for a customs procedure; or
  - (c) an amended release notification containing the amended particulars.
- (3) When giving effect to subsection (2) the customs authority—
- (a) may, instead of electronically transmitting a withdrawal message or a new or amended release notification to the person clearing the goods or who submitted the clearance declaration, issue to that person a computer printout of the message or notification; or 10
  - (b) is, in the case of subsection (2)(b), not obliged to transmit a new release notification referred to in that subsection to a release agent who is not in physical possession of the goods to which the notification relates. 15

(2) International transit is a customs procedure that allows goods to which this Chapter applies imported on board— 5

(a) a foreign-going vessel or aircraft or a cross-border railway carriage—

186. International transit does not include a situation where goods are not off-loaded from and remain on board a foreign-going vessel or aircraft or cross-border railway carriage until the vessel, aircraft or railway carriage again leaves the Republic. In such a case the goods are in terms of section 91 exempted from the obligation to be cleared.

187. Chapter 16 regulating the clearance of goods for export from the Republic does not apply to the export from the Republic of goods that are cleared and released for international transit. See section 361(3).

(3) When limiting the customs seaports and airports in terms of subsection (1) for the international transit procedure, the Commissioner must act in accordance with the directions of the Minister acting in consultation with the Cabinet members responsible for transport, trade and industry and home affairs.

Application of other legislation to goods under international transit

199. (1) Legislation, other than this Act or the Counterfeit Goods Act, regulating the import into, or the possession in, the Republic of goods for the purpose of protecting South African goods for economic reasons, does not apply to imported goods that are cleared and released for international transit.

(2) Subsection (1) ceases to apply if—

- (a) the release of the goods for international transit is withdrawn in terms of section 105;<sup>189</sup> or

CHAPTER 10

EXCISE WAREHOUSE TRANSIT PROCEDURE

Part 1

Introductory provisions 25

Purpose and application of this Chapter

220. (1) The purpose of this Chapter is to regulate the excise warehouse transit procedure.

(2) This Chapter applies to the transport to excise manufacturing warehouse of imported goods referred to in section 224(1) that are not in free circulation, excluding the transport of such goods between excise warehouses. 30

Excise warehouse transit procedure<sup>202</sup>

221. Excise warehouse transit is a customs procedure that allows goods to which this Chapter applies, to be transported, without first clearing the goods for home use under Chapter 8, from a place in the Republic<sup>203</sup> to a licensed excise manufacturing warehouse for a purpose that will render the goods upon delivery to the excise warehouse subject to the Excise Duty Act. 35

Commencement and completion of excise warehouse transit procedure

222. (1) (a) Goods come under the excise warehouse transit procedure when the goods are cleared for transit to a licensed excise manufacturing warehouse. 40

(b) The procedure is, subject to subsection (2), completed when the goods are delivered to the licensed excise manufacturing warehouse.

(2) The excise warehouse transit procedure, in relation to any goods, ends before its completion if completion of the procedure is interrupted by an occurrence referred to in section 109(2). 45

(3) (a) Upon completion of the excise warehouse transit procedure as contemplated in subsection (1), the Excise Duty Act becomes applicable to the goods and that Act applies

202. For tax status of goods under the excise warehouse transit procedure, see section 141. For consequences of non-compliance with the excise warehouse transit procedure, see sections 112 and 115.

203. This includes transport of the goods from the place of entry or from a storage warehouse to the excise warehouse.

to any manufacturing and other processes in which the goods are used, including the storage, handling and transport of the goods and other actions taken in respect of the goods for purposes of those processes.

(b) If the excise warehouse transit procedure ends before its completion as contemplated in subsection (2), the goods must be dealt with in accordance with this Act. 5

Extent to which Chapters 4 and 7 apply

223. Chapters 4 and 7, except insofar as a provision of those Chapters is modified, qualified or deviated from in this Chapter,<sup>204</sup> apply to goods under the excise warehouse transit procedure, including to the clearance and release of goods for the excise warehouse transit procedure. 10

Clearance and release of goods for excise warehouse transit

Clearance of goods for excise warehouse transit

224. (1) Imported goods may be cleared for the excise warehouse transit procedure only if those goods are of a class or kind authorised in the Excise Duty Act as goods that may be cleared for excise warehouse transit. 15

(2) Goods to be cleared for excise warehouse transit must be cleared in accordance with section 223.

Persons entitled to submit excise warehouse transit clearance declarations 20

225. Only the following persons may, subject to section 165(2), submit clearance declarations to clear goods for excise warehouse transit:<sup>205</sup>

229. (1) An excise warehouse transit operation must, subject to section 123(1)(g), commence at the starting point of the operation indicated in the excise warehouse transit clearance declaration, within such period from release of the goods for transit as may be prescribed by rule read with sections 908 and 909. 30

 (2) This Chapter applies to the transfer of imported goods at a customs seaport or airport from one foreign-going vessel or aircraft to another.

Transshipment<sup>211</sup>

- 242. (1) Transshipment is a customs procedure that allows imported goods—
  - (a) to be transferred at a customs seaport or airport from the foreign-going vessel or aircraft on which those goods were imported to another foreign-going vessel or aircraft at that seaport or airport on which those goods are to be exported from the Republic; and
  - (b) to be exported from the Republic without complying with any export clearing formalities.<sup>212</sup>
 (2) The transshipment procedure is not available for goods of a class or kind or falling within a category as may be prescribed by rule.

Commencement and completion of transshipment procedure

- 243. (1) (a) Goods come under the transshipment procedure when the goods are cleared for transshipment. 30
 (b) The transshipment procedure is, subject to subsection (2), completed when the goods are exported from the Republic.
 (2) The transshipment procedure ends before its completion if—
  - (a) the goods before completion of the procedure are cleared and released for another customs procedure or for home use, as may be permissible in the circumstances; or 35
  - (b) completion of the procedure is interrupted by an occurrence referred to in section 109(2).

Extent to which Chapters 4 and 7 apply 40

CHAPTER 14*TAX FREE SHOP PROCEDURE*Part 1*Introductory provisions*Purpose and application of this Chapter 45

315. (1) The purpose of this Chapter is to regulate the tax free shop procedure.

<sup>249</sup> If ownership of goods under a customs procedure is transferred, the new owner is in terms of section 111(5)(b)(i) regarded to have cleared the goods and assumes the responsibilities of the previous owner.

(2) This Chapter applies to all goods supplied to or received in a tax free shop for sale in or from that shop.

Tax free shop procedure<sup>250</sup>

- 316. The tax free shop procedure is a customs procedure that allows—
- (a) goods whether in free circulation or not in free circulation to be sold tax free in retail quantities on premises situated within a sea, air or rail travellers terminal or land border-post and licensed as a tax free shop to persons entering or leaving the Republic; 5
  - (b) goods not in free circulation supplied to a tax free shop for the purpose of such sale to be transported to the shop without clearing the goods for national transit; and 10
  - (c) the goods so sold to be treated as accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of such persons.

Commencement and completion of tax free shop procedure

- 317. (1) (a) Goods not in free circulation come under the tax free shop procedure when the goods are cleared for supply to a tax free shop in accordance with Part 2, and goods in free circulation automatically come under the tax free shop procedure when the goods are received in a tax free shop in accordance with Part 3. 15
- (b) The tax free shop procedure is, subject to subsection (2), completed when the goods are sold from the shop and— 20
- (i) if sold to a person in the process of leaving the Republic, exported from the Republic; or
  - (ii) if sold to a person having entered the Republic, declared in terms of section 478(1)(b) to the customs authority.
- (2) The tax free shop procedure, in relation to any goods, ends before its completion if— 25
- (a) the goods before completion of the procedure are cleared and released for another customs procedure or for home use, as may be permissible in the circumstances; or
  - (b) completion of the procedure is interrupted by an occurrence referred to in section 109(2). 30

Extent to which Chapters 4 and 7 apply

318. Chapters 4 and 7, except insofar as a provision of those Chapters is modified, qualified or deviated from in this Chapter,<sup>251</sup> apply to goods under the tax free shop procedure, including to the clearance and release of goods for the tax free shop procedure. 35

(2) Goods not in free circulation to be cleared for supply to a tax free shop must be cleared in accordance with section 318.

250. For tax status of goods under the tax free shop procedure, see section 145. For consequences of non-compliance with the tax free shop procedure, see sections 112, 113, 114 and 115.

Securing of stores by removal from vessels or aircraft

- 351. The customs authority may direct or allow that any stores under the stores procedure on board a foreign-going vessel or aircraft be removed from the vessel or aircraft for storage elsewhere until the vessel or aircraft is ready to depart, if—
- (a) the vessel or aircraft for any reason is to remain at a specific location for a period longer than scheduled; and 30
- (b) such storage is necessary to ensure that those stores are not dealt with in any unauthorised way.

Replacement of stores on vessels or aircraft

- 352. (1) The customs authority may direct or allow that stores under the stores procedure on board a foreign-going vessel or aircraft be removed from the vessel or aircraft and replaced by equivalent goods in free circulation, as may be prescribed by rule. 35
- (2) If any stores under the stores procedure on board a foreign-going vessel or aircraft are replaced by equivalent goods in terms of subsection (1), those equivalent goods must for all purposes be regarded to be the replaced stores. 40

Unused stores on board vessel or aircraft no longer bound for foreign destinations

- 353. If the schedule for a foreign-going vessel or aircraft or a cross-border train is for any reason changed and the vessel, aircraft or train is no longer bound for a destination outside the Republic, any unused stores on board the vessel, aircraft or train under the stores procedure must— 45
- (a) be cleared as stores for another vessel, aircraft or train or for another customs procedure or for home use if permissible in the circumstances, in the case of stores—
- (i) that were on board the vessel, aircraft or train when the vessel, aircraft or train entered the Republic; or 50
- (ii) that were not in free circulation when initially cleared in terms of Part 2 as stores for the vessel, aircraft or train; or

- (b) be cleared as stores for another vessel, aircraft or train or revert to free circulation, in the case of stores that were in free circulation when initially cleared in terms of Part 2 as stores for the vessel, aircraft or train.<sup>269</sup>

Stores departure reports

- 354. (1) All stores that are under the stores procedure on board— 5
- (a) a foreign-going vessel or aircraft when the vessel or aircraft departs from a customs seaport or airport, including stores in the personal possession of a crew member, must be reported to the customs authority; or
- (b) a cross-border train when the train departs from a railway station referred to in section 346(1)(b), including stores in the personal possession of a crew member, must be reported to the customs authority. 10
- (2) A stores departure report referred to in subsection (1) must be submitted to the customs authority together with or as part of the departure report that must be submitted in respect of—
- (a) the vessel in terms of section 53 when the vessel departs from a customs seaport; 15
- (b) the aircraft in terms of section 59 when the aircraft departs from a customs airport; or
- (c) the train in terms of section 63 when the train departs from a railway station as may be prescribed by rule. 20

Submission of stores reports in terms of this Chapter

- 355. (1) A stores arrival or departure report must—
- (a) be in the form and format as may be prescribed by rule and contain the information required on the prescribed form or otherwise prescribed by rule; 25
- (b) be accompanied or supported by any documents as may be prescribed by rule; and
- (c) be submitted electronically in accordance with section 913 by the carrier operating the vessel, aircraft or train.
- (2) Subsection (1) must, in the case of a carrier who is not located in the Republic,<sup>270</sup> be complied with either by the carrier or that carrier's registered agent in the Republic. 30

Aborted voyages<sup>271</sup>

- 356. (1) If after having left the Republic for a destination outside the Republic, a foreign-going vessel or aircraft referred to in section 334(2) returns to the Republic, stores that were on board the vessel or aircraft under the stores procedure must be dealt with as follows: 35
- (a) Stores that were on board the vessel or aircraft when the vessel or aircraft entered the Republic or that were not in free circulation when cleared in terms of Part 2 as stores for that vessel or aircraft, must for tax purposes be regarded to be cleared for home use under Chapter 8<sup>272</sup> to the extent that those stores—
- (i) if the vessel or aircraft returned to the Republic due to unavoidable circumstances— 40
- (aa) were used or purportedly used during the aborted voyage in excess of a quantity which could reasonably have been used on the vessel or aircraft taking into account the duration and circumstances of the aborted voyage; or 45
- (bb) are lost or unaccounted for; or
- (ii) if the vessel or aircraft returned to the Republic due to avoidable circumstances—
- (aa) were used or purportedly used during the aborted voyage; or
- (bb) are lost or unaccounted for. 50

269. If these goods revert to free circulation the clearance for the stores procedure must be withdrawn and section 161 becomes applicable to the goods.

270. See section 1(3)(a).

271. Section 353 applies if a vessel is no longer bound for a destination outside the Republic.

272. For tax consequences if goods are regarded to be cleared for home use, see section 154.

- (b) Stores that were in free circulation when cleared in terms of Part 3 as stores for that vessel or aircraft, must for tax purposes be regarded as having reverted to free circulation<sup>273</sup> to the extent that those stores—
- (i) if the vessel or aircraft returned to the Republic due to unavoidable circumstances—
    - (aa) were used or purportedly used during the aborted voyage in excess of a quantity which could reasonably have been used on the vessel or aircraft taking into account the duration and circumstances of the aborted voyage; or
    - (bb) are lost or unaccounted for; or
  - (ii) if the vessel or aircraft returned to the Republic due to avoidable circumstances—
    - (aa) were used or purportedly used during the aborted voyage; or
    - (bb) are lost or unaccounted for.
- (2) The carrier operating a foreign-going vessel or aircraft referred to in section 334(2) must notify the customs authority of any aborted voyage referred to in subsection (1).

Other matters

Additional grounds for regarding stores under stores procedure to be cleared for home use<sup>274</sup>

357. Goods that came under the stores procedure when a foreign-going vessel or aircraft or a cross-border train referred to in section 334(2) entered the Republic and goods that were not in free circulation when cleared in terms of Part 2 for supply as stores to such a vessel, aircraft or train, must in terms of section 112 for tax purposes be regarded to be cleared for home use under Chapter 8<sup>275</sup>—

- (a) insofar as those goods are used by—
  - (i) travellers and crew members travelling on board such a vessel, aircraft or train only between places within the Republic;

Additional grounds for regarding stores under stores procedure to have reverted to free circulation<sup>276</sup>

358. Goods that were in free circulation when cleared in terms of Part 2 for supply as stores to a foreign-going vessel or aircraft or cross-border train referred to in section 334(2), must in terms of section 113 for tax purposes be regarded to have reverted to free circulation<sup>277</sup> insofar as the goods are used by—

- (a) travellers and crew members travelling on board such a vessel, aircraft or train only between places within the Republic;

<sup>277</sup> For tax consequences if goods are regarded as having reverted to free circulation, see section 161; for other consequences of non-compliance with customs procedures, see section 115.

- (b) persons performing duties on board such a vessel, aircraft or train only whilst the vessel, aircraft or train is in a customs seaport or airport or a railway terminal; or
- (c) guests on board such a vessel whilst in a customs seaport.

Rules to facilitate implementation of this Chapter 5

359. Rules made in terms of section 903 to facilitate the implementation of this Chapter may include rules—

- (a) regulating the issue in terms of section 348 of stores on board foreign-going vessels whilst in customs seaports to travellers and crew on board the vessel; 10

- (e) prescribing—
  - (i) for purposes of section 122(c), any persons, other than carriers, permitted to transport goods not in free circulation to a vessel, aircraft or train under the stores procedure; and
  - (ii) measures to ensure effective customs control when goods not in free circulation are transported to a vessel, aircraft or train under the stores procedure. 20

Offences in terms of this Chapter

- 360. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if that person contravenes section 347(3) or 350(1).<sup>278</sup> 25
- (2) The carrier operating a foreign-going vessel or aircraft or cross-border train referred to in section 334(2) is guilty of an offence—
- (a) if section 339(1) or 344(1) or (2)(a) or (b) is contravened with respect to that vessel, aircraft or train;
  - (b) if section 350(1) or 353(a) is contravened with respect to stores on board that vessel, aircraft or train; or 30
  - (c) if a direction in terms of section 351 is not complied with; or
  - (d) if that carrier fails to comply with section 356(2).
- (3) The on-board operator of a foreign-going vessel or aircraft or cross-border train referred to in section 334(2) is guilty of an offence— 35
- (a) if that person fails to comply with section 343 or 347(4);
  - (b) if section 339(1) or 344(1) or (2)(a) or (b) is contravened with respect to that vessel, aircraft or train;
  - (c) if section 350(1) is contravened with respect to stores on board that vessel, aircraft or train; or 40
  - (d) if a direction in terms of section 351 is not complied with.
- (4) The on-board operator of a foreign-going vessel referred to in section 334(2) is guilty of an offence—
- (a) if stores on board the vessel are issued or used otherwise than in accordance with section 348(1) or (2); or 45
  - (b) if that person fails to comply with section 348(4).
- (5) An offence referred to in subsection (1) is a Category 1 offence.

<sup>278</sup> Section 360(1) is a Category 1 offence which applies to all persons illegally removing stores from a vessel, aircraft or train, and covers also the carrier or on-board operator if the carrier or on-board operator is the actual perpetrator. The offence in terms of this section must be distinguished from section 360(2) and (3) which creates Category (2) offences for carriers and on-board operators in circumstances where the carrier or on-board operator is not the actual perpetrator but fails to exercise proper control to prevent stores from being illegally removed.

CHAPTER 16

EXPORT PROCEDURE

  - (f) the stores procedure in terms of Chapter 15; or
  - (g) any other exclusion in terms of section 95 from export clearance requirements.

Export procedure

- 362. The export procedure is a customs procedure that allows— 35
- (a) the export of goods from the Republic; and
  - (b) the transport of goods under the export procedure to the place of exit where the goods are to be exported without clearing the goods for transit.<sup>279</sup>

Commencement and completion of export procedure

- 363. (1) (a) Goods come under the export procedure when the goods are in terms of this Chapter cleared for export. 40
- (b) The export procedure is, subject to subsection (2), completed when the goods are exported from the Republic.
- (2) The export procedure ends before its completion if—
- (a) the goods before completion of the procedure are cleared and released for another customs procedure or for home use, as may be permissible in the circumstances; or 45
  - (b) completion of the procedure is interrupted by an occurrence referred to in section 109(2).

<sup>279</sup> This applies to all goods cleared for export, including locally manufactured excisable goods, fuel levy goods etc., transported from excise warehouses.

Extent to which Chapters 4 and 7 apply

364. Chapters 4 and 7, except insofar as a provision of those Chapters is modified, qualified or deviated from in this Chapter, apply to goods under the export procedure,<sup>280</sup> including to the clearance and release of goods for the export procedure.

5

Clearance and release of goods for export from Republic<sup>281</sup>*Clearance of goods for export

365. Goods to be cleared for export from the Republic must be cleared in accordance with section 364.

Persons entitled to submit export clearance declarations

366. Only the following persons may, subject to section 165(2), submit clearance declarations to clear goods for the export procedure:<sup>282</sup>

- (a) The exporter of the goods, if that exporter is located in the Republic;
- (b) the agent in the Republic of the exporter, if the exporter is not located in the Republic; or
- (c) a customs broker referred to in section 165(1)(b).

Contents of export clearance declarations

367. (1) An export clearance declaration must, in addition to the information required in terms of section 167, state the following:

- (a) The amount of any tax and the kind of tax paid on the goods, if reclaimable on the export of the goods; 20
- (b) the amount of any export tax payable on the goods, and the kind of export tax;
- (c) in the case of goods to be exported from the Republic—
  - (i) by sea, air or rail, the customs code of the licensed terminal where the goods will be loaded on board the foreign-going vessel, foreign-going aircraft or cross-border railway carriage in which the goods are to be exported from the Republic; or 25
  - (ii) by road, the customs code of the land border-post through which the goods will be exported from the Republic;
- (d) in the case of goods that will be transported by road from a licensed terminal or depot to a land border-post through which the goods will be exported from the Republic, the customs code of—
  - (i) that terminal or depot; and
  - (ii) the licensed carrier that will transport the goods by road from that terminal or depot to that land border-post; and 30
- (e) whether any exchange control measures are applicable to the export of the relevant goods. 35

Timeous delivery of goods to depots and export terminals to allow for inspection<sup>283</sup>

368. (1) To enable the customs authority to carry out any necessary inspections of goods cleared for export in terms of the export procedure,<sup>284</sup> the goods must, within such timeframes as may be prescribed by rule, be delivered to— 40

- (a) a container depot, in the case of goods to be containerised for export by sea at a container depot;

280. In the case of an inconsistency between a provision of this Chapter and a general provision contained in Chapter 4 or 7, the provision of this Chapter prevails. See sections 88(3) and 162(3).

281. For tax status of goods cleared for outright export, see section 136.

282. See section 165(1)(a).

283. Goods should timeously be delivered to depots and export terminals to allow for inspections as Customs will not be liable for expenses caused by delays in the export of goods. See section 923.

284. See section 94 for timeframes applicable to the clearance of goods under the export procedure.

- (b) an air cargo depot, in the case of goods to be packed for export by air at an air cargo depot; or
  - (c) the terminal where the goods will be loaded on board a foreign-going vessel, foreign-going aircraft or cross-border railway carriage in which the goods are to be exported, in the case of those and all other goods, including goods—
    - (i) containerised for export by sea elsewhere than at a container depot; or
    - (ii) packed for export by air elsewhere than at an air cargo depot.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
- (a) accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of persons leaving the Republic;
  - (b) postal articles handled by the South African Post Office; or
  - (c) any other category of goods as may be determined by rule.

Time when goods may be released for export

- 369. (1) The customs authority may not release under the export procedure goods for export—
- (a) by sea before the goods are delivered to—
    - (i) a container depot, in the case of goods to be containerised for export at that container depot; or
    - (ii) the sea cargo terminal where the goods are to be loaded on board a foreign-going vessel in which the goods are to be exported, in the case of all other goods including goods containerised for export by sea elsewhere than at a container depot;
  - (b) by air before the goods are delivered to—
    - (i) an air cargo depot, in the case of goods to be packed for export at that air cargo depot; or
    - (ii) the air cargo terminal where the goods are to be loaded on board a foreign-going aircraft in which the goods are to be exported, in the case of all other goods including goods packed for export by air elsewhere than at an air cargo depot;
  - (c) by rail before the goods are delivered to the rail cargo terminal where the goods are to be loaded on board a cross-border railway carriage in which the goods are to be exported; or
  - (d) by road before the vehicle that will transport the goods out of the Republic has reached the land border-post where the goods are to be exported.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
- (a) goods under the warehousing procedure;<sup>285</sup> or
  - (b) any category of goods as may be prescribed by rule.
- (3) Goods referred to in subsection (2) may be released for export in terms of the export procedure otherwise than as provided in subsection (1), provided section 108 and any requirements and conditions as may be prescribed by rule are complied with.

Failure to export goods released for export

- 370. (1) If goods that are cleared and released for export under the export procedure, are not exported within a timeframe from release of the goods for export as may be prescribed by rule read with sections 908 and 909—
- (a) the person clearing the goods for export must immediately notify the customs authority of—
    - (i) the failure to export the goods<sup>286</sup>; and
    - (ii) the reasons for the failure; and
  - (b) the customs authority may, whether a notification in terms of paragraph (a) has been given or not—
    - (i) secure the goods or require the goods to be secured in such manner as the customs authority may determine pending the export of the goods in terms of the release;
    - (ii) withdraw in terms of section 105 the release given in respect of the goods;<sup>287</sup> or

285. See section 310(a).

286. Failure to load goods for export will appear from outturn reports to be submitted by terminal operators.

287. For consequences of a withdrawal of a release, see section 106.

(iii) issue a direction in terms of section 112(2) or 113(2), as may be appropriate, whether or not the release has been withdrawn.

(2) A person who cleared goods for export under the export procedure must on request by the customs authority provide proof to the customs authority, as may be prescribed by rule, that the goods were exported. 5

(3) The burden to prove that goods released for export under the export procedure have been exported rests on the person clearing the goods.

Clearance of goods exported through cross-border transmission lines, pipelines, cable-cars or conveyor belts

371. The Commissioner may by rule— 10

- (a) prescribe special processes and requirements for the clearance and release for outright export of—
  - (i) electricity to be exported through licensed cross-border transmission lines; and
  - (ii) other goods to be exported through licensed cross-border pipelines or by means of licensed cross-border cable cars or conveyor belts; and 15
- (b) exempt such electricity or other goods from a provision of this Act that is not consistent with such special processes and requirements, including any provision relating to the clearance or release of goods. 20

Part 3 20

Other matters

Rules to facilitate implementation of this Chapter

372. Rules made in terms of section 903 to facilitate the implementation of this Chapter may include rules prescribing—

- (a) measures to ensure effective customs control when goods not in free circulation are transported under the export procedure to a place of exit from where the goods will be exported; 25
- (b) for purposes of section 122(c), any persons, other than carriers, permitted to transport goods not in free circulation to a place of exit under the export procedure; 30
- (c) documents that may be used to prove that goods were—
  - (i) loaded for export; and
  - (ii) exported from the Republic;
- (d) notices that must be submitted to the customs authority and other persons by licensees of container depots, sea cargo terminals, air cargo depots, air cargo terminals and rail cargo terminals; and 35
- (e) regulatory requirements and conditions for licensees to carry out activities in connection with export goods.

Offences in terms of this Chapter

373. (1) A person clearing goods for export is guilty of an offence if that person fails to comply with— 40

- (a) section 368(1); or
- (b) section 370(1)(a).

(2) An offence referred to in subsection (1)(b) is a Category 1 offence.

CHAPTER 17

TEMPORARY EXPORT PROCEDURE

*Part 1Introductory provisionsPurpose and application of this Chapter 5

- 374. (1) The purpose of this Chapter is to regulate the temporary export procedure.
 (2) This Chapter applies to goods temporarily exported from the Republic.

Temporary export procedure<sup>288</sup>

- 375. (1) The temporary export procedure is a customs procedure that allows—
- (a) goods— 10
    - (i) to be temporarily exported from the Republic with the intention to return the goods to the Republic; and
    - (ii) to be returned to the Republic as re-imported unaltered goods; or
  - (b) goods exported outright from the Republic to be returned to the Republic as re-imported unaltered goods. 15
- (2) The temporary export procedure is available only for goods which—
- (a) fall within a category of goods to which Part 2, 4 or 5 applies; and
  - (b) are of a nature that will make them, when eventually re-imported, likely to be identified as the same goods.

Commencement and completion of temporary export procedure 20

- 376. (1) Goods come under—
- (a) the temporary export procedure contemplated in section 375(1)(a)—
    - (i) when cleared for temporary export in terms of Part 2, in the case of goods to which that Part applies;
    - (ii) when cleared for temporary export in terms of international clearance arrangements referred to in Part 4, in the case of goods to which that Part applies; or
    - (iii) upon leaving the Republic, in the case of goods that automatically come under the temporary export procedure in terms of Part 5; or
  - (b) the temporary export procedure contemplated in section 375(1)(b), retrospectively as from the time the goods are cleared and released in terms of Chapter 16 for outright export from the Republic. 25
- (2) The temporary export procedure is, subject to subsection (3), completed—
- (a) in the case of goods referred to in subsection (1)(a)(i) or (b), when the goods are returned to the Republic and cleared and released as re-imported unaltered goods for home use in terms of Part 3; 35
  - (b) in the case of goods referred to in subsection (1)(a)(ii), when the goods are returned to the Republic in accordance with the international clearance arrangements referred to in Part 4; or
  - (c) in the case of goods referred to in subsection (1)(a)(iii), when the goods re-enter the Republic. 40
- (3) The temporary export procedure ends before its completion if completion of the procedure is interrupted by an occurrence referred to in section 109(2).

Extent to which Chapters 4 and 7 apply

- 377. Chapters 4 and 7, except insofar as a provision of those Chapters is modified, qualified or deviated from in this Chapter, apply to all goods under the temporary export procedure,<sup>289</sup> including to the clearance and release of goods—
- (a) for temporary export in terms of Part 2 or 4; and
  - (b) as re-imported unaltered goods for home use in terms of Part 3 or 4.

<sup>289.</sup> In the case of an inconsistency between a provision of this Chapter and a general provision contained in Chapter 4 or 7 the provision of this Chapter prevails. See sections 88(3) and 162(3).

Part 2Temporary export of goods under regular clearance and release proceduresApplication of this Part

- 378. (1) This Part—
- (a) applies to goods of a class or kind that may in terms of any of the tax levying Acts be cleared for temporary export under this Part; and 5
  - (b) does not apply to goods—
    - (i) cleared in accordance with the international clearance arrangements referred to in Part 4; or
    - (ii) that automatically come under the temporary export procedure in terms of Part 5. 10
- (2) Goods to be cleared for temporary export under this Part must be cleared for export in accordance with Chapter 16,<sup>290</sup> read with section 377(a).

Clearing of goods for temporary export

- 379. (1) If a person clears goods for temporary export in terms of Chapter 16— 15
- (a) the export clearance declaration referred to in section 367 must state—
    - (i) the intention to return the goods to the Republic as re-imported unaltered goods; and
    - (ii) the date before which the goods will be returned to the Republic; and
  - (b) that person must— 20
    - (i) either provide security for the payment of any export tax or pay the amount of any export tax that may become payable on the goods should the goods lose their tax free status in relation to export tax; and
    - (ii) comply with such further requirements as may be prescribed by rule or as the customs authority may determine in a specific case. 25
- (2) The customs authority may exempt a person from compliance with subsection (1)(b)(i).
- (3) Goods are cleared in terms of subsection (1) for temporary export on condition that the goods must be returned to the Republic in the same state they were when exported. 30

Release of goods for temporary export

- 380. (1) If goods are released for temporary export, the release notification must state the period within which the goods must be returned to the Republic.
- (2) A period determined in terms of subsection (1) may not exceed—
- (a) a maximum period as may be prescribed for the relevant class or kind of goods— 35
    - (i) in a tax levying Act referred to in section 378(1)(a) or, if two or more tax levying Acts permit goods of the same class or kind to be cleared for temporary export, a maximum period prescribed uniformly in those tax levying Acts for that class or kind of goods; or 40
    - (ii) by rule, if no period is in terms of subparagraph (i) prescribed for that class or kind of goods; or
  - (b) one year from the date of clearance of the goods, if no period is in terms of paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) prescribed for that class or kind of goods.
- (3) The period mentioned in a release notification may be extended in terms of section 908 only once except if good cause is shown for an additional extension. 45

<sup>290</sup>. See also section 361(2)(b)(ii) which states that Chapter 16 applies to goods destined for temporary export.

Simplified clearance and release for commercial trucks temporarily leaving Republic

381. Trucks leaving the Republic as a means of transport currently in use for the transport of goods in the ordinary course of international trade may, despite the other provisions of this Part, be cleared and released for the temporary export procedure in accordance with simplified clearance and release processes and requirements referred to in Part 3 of Chapter 24 if the truck— 5

- (a) is not leaving the Republic on the return leg of the temporary admission procedure;<sup>291</sup> and

- (b) the compensating products are exported in separate consignments, provided that a separate export clearance declaration is submitted in respect of each consignment; or 45
- (c) the compensating products are exported at a place of exit other than the place of entry through which the goods from which the products were obtained were originally imported. 50

<sup>308</sup> See also section 361(2)(c) which states that Chapter 16 applies to goods destined for export as inward processed compensating products.

Persons entitled to submit export clearance declarations for inward processed compensating products

- 420. Only the following persons may, subject to section 165(2), submit clearance declarations to clear goods for export as inward processed compensating products:<sup>309</sup>
- (a) The person who originally cleared for inward processing the imported goods from which those products were obtained; 5
  - (b) the licensee of the inward processing premises where the processing of the goods had been carried out;
  - (c) the exporter of the inward processed compensating products, provided that the exporter is licensed in terms of Chapter 29 to export inward processed compensating products; and 10
  - (d) a customs broker referred to in section 165(1)(b).

Contents of export clearance declarations for inward processed compensating products

- 421. A clearance declaration submitted in terms of Part 2 of Chapter 16 for the export of goods as inward processed compensating products must, in addition to the information required in terms of sections 167 and 367, state— 15
- (a) that the goods are exported as inward processed compensating products;
  - (b) the reference number and date of the inward processing clearance declaration submitted in respect of the imported goods from which those compensating products were obtained. 20

Part 4

Provisions regulating goods under inward processing procedure

Imported goods under inward processing procedure to be used only for production of inward processed compensating products 25

- 422. (1) Imported goods cleared and released for inward processing may be used only for the production of goods for export as inward processed compensating products, subject to subsection (2) and section 424.
- (2) If goods under the inward processing procedure are for any reason no longer intended to be used, or are not used, for the purpose referred to subsection (1), the person clearing the goods must promptly clear those goods in terms of section 110 for another customs procedure or for home use, if permissible in the circumstances. 30
- (3) Section 106 applies if goods are cleared in terms of subsection (2) for another customs procedure or for home use and the release of the goods for that customs procedure or for home use is refused.<sup>310</sup> 35

Compulsory export of inward processed compensating products

- 423. (1) Inward processed compensating products must be exported from the Republic unless the imported goods from which those compensating products were obtained are in terms of section 110, read with subsection (2), cleared and released for home use before the expiry of the timeframe applicable to those compensating products in terms of section 418. 40
- (2) A clearance declaration to clear imported goods for home use as contemplated in subsection (1) may be submitted to the customs authority only if—
- (a) the person who cleared those imported goods for inward processing has submitted to the customs authority a motivated application for permission to clear the goods for home use; and 45
  - (b) the customs authority has granted permission to that person to clear the goods for home use.

(3) If an application submitted to the customs authority in terms of subsection (2) is refused, the inward processed compensating products obtained from those imported goods must—

- (a) before the expiry of the timeframe applicable to those products in terms of section 418 be cleared for export; and
- (b) be exported from the Republic.

By-products and commercially valuable waste

424. (1) If by-products or commercially valuable waste is, in addition to compensating products, obtained from the processing of imported goods under the inward processing procedure, the by-products or waste must within the timeframe referred to in section 418 be cleared for export in terms of Part 3 as if the by-products or waste were inward processed compensating products.<sup>311</sup>

(2) By-products or commercially valuable waste may, despite subsection (1), be allowed into free circulation provided—

- (a) the clearance declaration submitted to clear the imported goods for inward processing is amended to exclude from that declaration a quantity of the imported goods which in accordance with a conversion rate determined in terms of section 425 equals the quantity of such by-products or waste; and
- (b) the quantity of imported goods excluded from that clearance declaration in terms of paragraph (a) is cleared for home use under Chapter 8 within the timeframe applicable to the goods in terms of section 418.

(3) A clearance in terms of subsection (2)(b) takes effect from the time the goods were cleared for inward processing.<sup>312</sup>

Conversion rates

425. (1) The licensee of the inward processing premises where imported goods are processed under the inward processing procedure must determine a conversion rate, approved by the customs authority, that must for purposes of this Chapter be used for determining—

25

- (a) the quantity of compensating products, and of by-products or waste, that should in the ordinary course of processing the imported goods for the relevant purpose be obtained from a specific quantity of those goods; or
- (b) the quantity of those imported goods that, in the ordinary course of processing the goods for the relevant purpose, would have been used in order to obtain a specific quantity of compensating products, by-products or waste.

(2) Quantities may for purposes of subsection (1) be determined by number, weight, volume or any other measuring unit, as may be appropriate.

35

(3) In determining a conversion rate, account must be taken of any—

- (a) evaporation;
- (b) drying-out;
- (c) any other losses that may result from the nature of the goods used; and
- (d) any other relevant factors.

Identification measures

426. The customs authority may take such steps as are necessary for the identification of goods to be exported as inward processed compensating products, including by—

- (a) recording any specific marks or numbers on the imported goods that are cleared for inward processing;
- (b) affixing any seals, stamps or individual marks to such goods;
- (c) taking any samples or making use of any illustrations or technical descriptions of such goods; and
- (d) requesting any documentary evidence concerning the processing of the goods.

<sup>311.</sup> The effect of this provision is that by-products and waste must be cleared for export in accordance with the provisions applicable to the clearance of inward processed compensating products.

Records and stocktaking

427. (1) The licensee of inward processing premises where imported goods are processed under the inward processing procedure must keep such records and submit such reports to the customs authority in respect of the imported goods and the compensating products, by-products and commercially valuable waste obtained from the imported goods, as may be prescribed by rule or as the customs authority may require in a specific case. 5

(2) A customs officer may at any time during an inspection in terms of Chapter 33—

(a) examine records kept in terms of subsection (1); and

(b) take stock of— 10

(i) imported goods cleared and released for inward processing;

(ii) any compensating products, by-products and waste obtained from those goods; and

(iii) any other goods present on the licensed inward processing premises where the imported goods are processed. 15

(3) If during any stocktaking imported goods under the inward processing procedure are found to be—

(a) greater than the quantity, weight or volume that should be on hand on the inward processing premises where the goods are processed, the excess must be taken as stock on hand; or 20

(b) less than the quantity, weight or volume that should be on hand on the premises, the shortfall must be dealt with in terms of Chapter 25 as goods unaccounted for.

Subcontracting of inward processing operations

428. (1) (a) The licensee of inward processing premises where imported goods are processed under the inward processing procedure may only with the approval of the customs authority<sup>313</sup> appoint a person as a subcontractor to undertake any aspect of such processing.<sup>314</sup> 25

(b) Paragraph (a) does not apply if the premises where the subcontracted processing is to be carried out are licensed inward processing premises and the subcontractor is the licensee of those premises. 30

(2) The premises on which the subcontracted processing is to be carried out must be licensed inward processing premises if the annual business turnover on those premises exceeds an amount as may be prescribed by rule.

(3) Application for an approval in terms of subsection (1)(a) must be made— 35

(a) to the customs authority before the goods are delivered to the subcontractor; and

(b) in the form and format, and in accordance with such requirements, as may be prescribed by rule.

Use of equivalent goods 40

429. (1) The customs authority may grant permission<sup>315</sup> to the licensee of the inward processing premises where goods are processed under the inward processing procedure to replace imported goods that are cleared and released for inward processing with goods in free circulation identical in description, quality, technical characteristics and quantity for use in the production of inward processed compensating products. 45

(2) If the customs authority has granted permission in terms of subsection (1) for equivalent goods to be used, those equivalent goods must for all purposes be regarded to be the imported goods cleared and released for inward processing.

313. See section 918 for granting of approvals on conditions.

314. Where a subcontractor undertakes any aspect of the inward processing of goods, the licensee appointing the subcontractor remains liable for the completion of the inward processing procedure.

315. See section 918 for granting of permissions on conditions.

Part 5*Other matters*Additional grounds for regarding goods under inward processing procedure to be cleared for home use<sup>316</sup>

430. (1) Imported goods under the inward processing procedure must in terms of section 125(1) for tax purposes be regarded to be cleared for home use under Chapter 8—<sup>317</sup> 5

- (a) if the goods are in breach of section 422 used for a purpose other than the production of inward processed compensating products of the class or kind stated in the inward processing clearance declaration of the goods; or 10
- (b) if compensating products obtained from the processing of those goods—
  - (i) are for any reason not cleared for export as inward processed compensating products within the timeframe applicable to those compensating products in terms of section 418, subject to section 423(1);
  - (ii) are diverted for home use; 15
  - (iii) are cleared and released for export as inward processed compensating products but not exported from the Republic within a timeframe prescribed by rule; or
  - (iv) are damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for and it is not proved in accordance with Part 2 of Chapter 25— 20
    - (aa) that the compensating products were damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for due to a recognised cause<sup>318</sup> ; or
    - (bb) in the case of compensating products lost due to a recognised cause, that the products, after having been lost, have not gone into home use in any way. 25

(2) Subsection (1)(b) applies to by-products and commercially valuable waste derived from the processing of imported goods under the inward processing procedure as if such by-products or waste were inward processed compensating products, except when such by-products or waste are dealt with in terms of section 424(2).

(3) (a) When applying section 112(1) to any imported goods under the inward processing procedure in circumstances where the ground for regarding the imported goods to be cleared for home use pertains only to a part of the compensating products obtained from the imported goods, only a proportionate part of the imported goods must in terms of that section be regarded to be cleared for home use. 30

(b) In determining the proportionate part of the imported goods that must be regarded to be cleared for home use in terms of paragraph (a), a conversion rate determined in terms of section 425 must be used. 35

Effect on compensating products when goods under inward processing procedure regarded to be cleared for home use

431. (1) Compensating products obtained from imported goods under the inward processing procedure lose their tax free status<sup>319</sup> as inward processed compensating products if, and to the extent that, the imported goods are in terms of section 112 regarded to be cleared for home use.

(2) In applying subsection (1) a conversion rate determined in terms of section 425 must be used. 45

316. See section 112 for general grounds on which goods under a customs procedure must or may be regarded to be cleared for home use.

317. For tax consequences if goods are regarded to be cleared for home use, see section 154; for other consequences of non-compliance with customs procedures, see sections 115.

318. See definition of “recognised cause” in section 1.

319. In relation to export tax, see section 148(2).

Rules to facilitate implementation of this Chapter

- 432. Rules made in terms of section 903 to facilitate the implementation of this Chapter may include rules—
- (a) regulating—
    - (i) the processing of goods under the inward processing procedure to prevent diversion of goods for home use or tax evasion; 5
    - (ii) the appointment of persons as subcontractors to undertake any aspect of the processing of goods on behalf of a person carrying out the processing of those goods under the inward processing procedure; and

    - (iii) any surpluses or shortfalls on goods received for inward processing or on inward processed products, by-products or waste obtained from those goods, as at the end of a reporting period; and 30
    - (iv) any goods or inward processed products, by-products or waste damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for during a reporting period;
  - (e) prescribing the periods for and the timeframes within which such reports must be submitted to the customs authority;

  - (g) to ensure effective customs control when imported goods or compensating products, by-products or waste obtained from the imported goods are stored or transported under the inward processing procedure. 40

Offences in terms of this Chapter

- 433. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if that person contravenes section 415(1)(c).
 (2) A person clearing goods for inward processing is guilty of an offence—
- (a) if section 418(2), 422(1), 423(1) or (3) or 424(1) is contravened or not complied with; or 45
  - (b) if that person contravenes or fails to comply with—
    - (i) a condition or requirement referred to in section 415(2) applicable to that person; or
    - (ii) section 422(2). 50
- (3) A licensee of inward processing premises is guilty of an offence if that person contravenes or fails to comply with—

CHAPTER 19

HOME USE PROCESSING PROCEDURE

*Part 1Introductory provisionsPurpose of this Chapter 5

434. The purpose of this Chapter is to regulate the home use processing procedure.

Home use processing procedure<sup>320</sup>

435. (1) Home use processing is a customs procedure that allows—

- (a) imported goods—
  - (i) to be processed on home use processing premises<sup>321</sup> without clearing the goods for home use in terms of Chapter 8; and 10
  - (ii) for purposes of such processing—
    - (aa) to be transported without clearing the goods for national transit; or
    - (bb) to be stored without clearing the goods for warehousing; and
- (b) products obtained from the processing of those imported goods— 15
  - (i) upon fulfilment of the conditions subject to which the imported goods were released for that procedure, to become goods in free circulation without clearing those products for home use; or
  - (ii) before those products become goods in free circulation, to be stored without clearing the products for warehousing or to be transported 20 without clearing the products for national transit.

(2) The home use processing procedure is available only for imported goods referred to in section 439(a).

Commencement and completion of home use processing procedure

436. (1) (a) Imported goods come under the home use processing procedure when the goods are cleared for home use processing. 25

(b) The home use processing procedure is, subject to subsection (2), completed upon fulfilment of the conditions subject to which those goods were released for that procedure.

(2) The home use processing procedure ends before its completion if— 30

- (a) the imported goods before completion of the procedure are cleared and released for another customs procedure or for home use, as may be permissible in the circumstances; or
- (b) completion of the procedure is interrupted by an occurrence referred to in section 109(2). 35

Extent to which Chapters 4 and 7 apply

437. Chapters 4 and 7, except insofar as a provision of those Chapters is modified, qualified or deviated from in this Chapter, apply to all goods under the home use processing procedure, including to the clearance and release of imported goods for home use processing. 40

*Part 2Clearance and release of imported goods for home use processingClearance of imported goods for home use processing

438. Imported goods to be cleared for home use processing must be cleared in accordance with section 437. 45

Conditions for clearance of imported goods for home use processing

- 439. Imported goods may be cleared for home use processing only if—
- (a) those goods are of a class or kind authorised in the Customs Tariff as goods that may be cleared for home use processing; 5
  - (b) the requirements applicable to the clearance for that procedure of goods of that class or kind have been complied with, including any requirements and conditions as may be—
    - (i) prescribed by rule;
    - (ii) specified in the Customs Tariff; or
    - (iii) determined in terms of any relevant tax levying Act or other applicable legislation; 10
  - (c) the premises where the home use processing of the goods is to be carried out are licensed as premises for home use processing;
  - (d) the licensee of those premises who is to carry out the home use processing of the goods— 15
    - (i) undertakes to comply with the requirements applicable to the home use processing of such goods, including—
      - (aa) any conditions subject to which the goods may be released for that procedure in terms of section 442; and
      - (bb) any requirements and conditions as may be prescribed by rule, specified in the Customs Tariff or determined in terms of the Customs Duty Act or other applicable legislation; and 20
    - (ii) has granted permission for the home use processing of the goods on those premises and has advised the customs authority electronically in accordance with section 913 of such permission, if that licensee is not the person who cleared the goods for home use processing; and 25
  - (e) any import tax that may become payable on the goods is covered by security.

Persons entitled to submit home use processing clearance declarations

- 440. Only the following persons may, subject to section 165(2), submit clearance declarations to clear imported goods for home use processing:<sup>322</sup> 30
- (a) The importer of the goods, provided that the importer is licensed in terms of Chapter 29 to import goods for home use processing;
  - (b) the licensee of the home use processing premises where the home use processing of the goods is to be carried out; and
  - (c) a customs broker referred to in section 165(1)(b). 35

Contents of home use processing clearance declarations

- 441. A clearance declaration for home use processing of imported goods must, in addition to the information required in terms of section 167, state—
- (a) that the goods are cleared for the home use processing procedure;
  - (b) the customs code of the licensed home use processing premises where the home use processing of the goods is to be carried out; 40
  - (c) the item number in the Customs Tariff authorising the clearance of goods of the relevant class or kind for home use processing; and
  - (d) details of any permit, permission or authorisation granted in respect of the goods in terms of any condition prescribed by rule, specified in the Customs Tariff or determined in terms of any other applicable legislation. 45

Release of imported goods for home use processing

- 442. (1) Imported goods cleared for home use processing may only be released for that procedure on condition—
- (a) that the requirements relating to home use processing are complied with, including any requirements and conditions as may be— 50
    - (i) prescribed by rule;

- (ii) specified in the Customs Tariff or determined in terms of any other applicable legislation; or
  - (iii) determined by the customs authority in terms of section 104 in a specific case; and
- (b) that compensating products obtained from those imported goods are dealt with in accordance with those requirements and conditions. 5
- (2) (a) When goods are released for the home use processing procedure the goods must be delivered to the licensed home use processing premises where the home use processing of the goods is to be carried out unless the customs authority authorises<sup>323</sup> the goods to be taken to another location. 10
- (b) When goods released for home use processing are delivered to the licensed premises where the home use processing of the goods is to be carried out or to that other location—
- (i) the carrier that transported the goods must notify the customs authority of the delivery; and 15
  - (ii) the licensee must notify the customs authority of the receipt of the goods, if the goods were delivered to those licensed premises.
- (c) No person may redirect goods that are cleared for home use processing to a place other than the licensed premises or that other location.

Part 3 20

Provisions regulating home use processing procedure

Goods under home use processing procedure only to be used for production of home use compensating products

- 443. (1) Imported goods cleared and released for home use processing may be used only for the production of home use compensating products of the class or kind stated in the clearance declaration of the goods, subject to section 446. 25
- (2) If imported goods under the home use processing procedure are for any reason no longer intended to be used for the purpose referred to subsection (1), the person clearing the goods must promptly clear those goods in terms of section 110 for another customs procedure or for home use, as may be permissible in the circumstances.<sup>324</sup> 30
- (3) Section 106 applies if goods are cleared in terms of subsection (2) for another customs procedure or for home use and the release of the goods for that customs procedure or for home use is refused.<sup>325</sup>

Time limits on completion of home use processing of goods

- 444. (1) The processing of imported goods under the home use processing procedure into home use compensating products must be completed within— 35
- (a) a timeframe as may be determined in the Customs Tariff for the specific class or kind of goods; or
  - (b) if not determined in the Customs Tariff, within two years from the date of import of the first constituent goods from which the compensating products were obtained. 40
- (2) A person who cleared goods for home use processing must immediately notify the customs authority of any failure to comply with subsection (1).
- (3) A timeframe referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) is subject to extension or shortening in terms of section 908 or 909. 45

323. See section 918 for authorisations granted on conditions.

324. Failure to comply with this subsection may result in steps under section 115 or 92 which may include seizure of the goods.

325. See sections 99 and 100.

Home use compensating products to be dealt with as goods in free circulation

- 445. (1) Unless otherwise specified in terms of a tax levying Act, compensating products obtained from the processing of imported goods under the home use processing procedure may, subject to subsection (2), be—
- (a) dealt with as goods in free circulation without any clearance and release of the goods for home use; or 5
  - (b) be cleared and release for export as goods in free circulation, and exported from the Republic, in accordance with the export procedure.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to compensating products obtained from the processing of imported goods under the home use processing procedure only if the products were obtained in accordance with— 10
- (a) the provisions of this Act relating to home use processing; and
  - (b) the conditions applicable to the goods in terms of section 442.
- (3) This section may not be read as affecting any provisions of a tax levying Act providing for the imposition and collection of taxes on such imported goods or compensating products. 15

By-products and commercially valuable waste

- 446. (1) If by-products or commercially valuable waste is, in addition to compensating products, obtained from the processing of imported goods under the home use processing procedure, the by-products or waste may be allowed into free circulation, provided— 20
- (a) the clearance declaration in terms of which the imported goods are cleared for home use processing is amended to exclude from that declaration a quantity of the imported goods which in accordance with a conversion rate determined in terms of section 447 equals the quantity of such by-products or waste; and 25
  - (b) the quantity of imported goods excluded from the original clearance in terms of paragraph (a) is cleared for home use in terms of Chapter 8 within the period applicable to the goods in terms of section 444.
- (2) A clearance in terms of subsection (1)(b) takes effect from the time of original clearance of the goods for home use processing. 30

Conversion rates

- 447. (1) The licensee of the home use processing premises where imported goods are processed under the home use processing procedure must determine a conversion rate, approved by the customs authority, that must for purposes of this Chapter be used for determining— 35
- (a) the quantity of compensating products, and of by-products or waste, that should in the ordinary course of processing the imported goods for the relevant purpose be obtained from a specific quantity of those goods; or
  - (b) the quantity of those imported goods that, in the ordinary course of processing the goods for the relevant purpose, would have been used in order to obtain a specific quantity of compensating products, by-products or waste. 40
- (2) Quantities may for purposes of subsection (1) be determined by number, weight, volume or any other measuring unit, as may be appropriate.
- (3) In determining a conversion rate, account must be taken of any— 45
- (a) evaporation;
  - (b) drying-out;
  - (c) any other losses that may result from the nature of the goods used; and
  - (d) any other relevant factors.

Records and stocktaking

- 448. (1) The licensee of the home use processing premises where imported goods are processed under the home use processing procedure must keep such records and submit such regular reports to the customs authority in respect of the goods and the compensating products, by-products and commercially valuable waste obtained from the goods, as may be prescribed by rule or as the customs authority may require in a specific case. 55

- (2) A customs officer may at any time during an inspection in terms of Chapter 33—
- (a) examine the records kept in terms of subsection (1); and
  - (b) take stock of —
    - (i) imported goods cleared and released for the home use processing procedure; 5
    - (ii) any compensating products, by-products and waste obtained from those goods; and
    - (iii) any other goods present on the licensed home use processing premises where the imported goods are processed.
- (3) If during any stocktaking imported goods under the home use processing procedure are found to be— 10
- (a) greater than the quantity, weight or volume that should be on hand on the home use processing premises where the goods are processed, the excess must be taken as stock on hand; or
  - (b) less than the quantity, weight or volume that should be on hand on the premises, the shortfall must be dealt with in terms of Chapter 25 as goods unaccounted for. 15

Sub-contracting of home use processing operations

- 449. (1) (a) The licensee of home use processing premises where imported goods are processed under the home use processing procedure may only with the approval of the customs authority<sup>326</sup> appoint a person as a subcontractor to undertake any aspect of such processing.<sup>327</sup> 20
- (b) Paragraph (a) does not apply if the premises where the subcontracted processing is to be carried out are licensed home use processing premises and the subcontractor is the licensee of those premises. 25
- (2) The premises where the subcontracted processing is to be carried out must be licensed home use processing premises if the annual business turnover on those premises exceeds an amount as may be prescribed by rule.
- (3) Application for an approval in terms of subsection (1)(a) must be made— 30
- (a) to the customs authority before the goods are delivered to the subcontractor; and
  - (b) in the form and format, and in accordance with such requirements, as may be prescribed by rule.

Part 4

Other matters 35

Additional grounds for regarding goods under home use processing procedure to be cleared for home use<sup>328</sup>

- 450. Imported goods that are cleared and released for home use processing must in terms of section 112(1) for tax purposes be regarded to be cleared for home use under Chapter 8—<sup>329</sup> 40
- (a) if the goods are in breach of section 443 used for a purpose other than the production of home use compensating products of the class or kind stated in the home use processing clearance declaration of those goods; or
  - (b) if the processing of the imported goods into home use compensating products is not completed within the timeframe applicable to the goods in terms of section 444. 45

326. See section 918 for granting of approvals on conditions.

327. Where a subcontractor undertakes any aspect of the home use processing of goods, the licensee appointing the subcontractor remains liable for the completion of the home use processing procedure.

328. See section 112 for general grounds on which goods under a customs procedure must or may be regarded to be cleared for home use.

329. For tax consequences if goods are regarded to be cleared for home use, see section 154; for other consequences of non-compliance with customs procedures, see section 115.

Rules to facilitate implementation of this Chapter

- 451. Rules made in terms of section 903 to facilitate the implementation of this Chapter may include rules—
- (a) regulating—

    - (ii) the appointment of persons as subcontractors to undertake any aspect of the processing of goods on behalf of a person carrying out the processing of those goods under the home use processing procedure, and the obligations of such subcontractors; and 10

CHAPTER 20

OUTWARD PROCESSING PROCEDURE

*Part 1Introductory provisionsPurpose of this Chapter 5

453. The purpose of this Chapter is to regulate the outward processing procedure.

Outward processing procedure<sup>330</sup>

454. (1) Outward processing is a customs procedure that allows—

- (a) goods to be exported from the Republic under this procedure for processing abroad; and 10
- (b) products obtained from the processing of those goods to be imported into the Republic and cleared and released for home use under this procedure as outward processed compensating products.

(2) The outward processing procedure is available only for goods referred to in section 458(a). 15

Commencement and completion of outward processing procedure

455. (1) (a) Goods come under the outward processing procedure when the goods are cleared for export under the outward processing procedure.

(b) The outward processing procedure is, subject to subsection (2), completed when products obtained from those goods are imported into the Republic and cleared and released for home use as outward processed compensating products. 20

(2) The outward processing procedure ends before its completion if completion of the procedure is interrupted by an occurrence referred to in section 109(2).

Extent to which Chapters 4 and 7 apply

456. Chapters 4 and 7, except insofar as a provision of those Chapters is modified, qualified or deviated from in this Chapter, apply to all goods under the outward processing procedure,<sup>331</sup> including to the clearance and release of—

- (a) goods for export for outward processing; and
- (b) imported goods for home use as outward processed compensating products.

Part 2 30*Clearance and release of goods for outward processingClearance of goods for outward processing procedure

457. Goods to be cleared for outward processing must be cleared for export for outward processing in accordance with Chapter 16<sup>332</sup> read with section 456(a).

Conditions for clearance of goods for outward processing 35

458. Goods may be cleared for outward processing only if—

- (a) those goods are of a class or kind authorised in any of the tax levying Acts as goods that may be cleared for outward processing;

330. For tax status of goods under the outward processing procedure, see section 150.

331. In the case of an inconsistency between a provision of this Chapter and a general provision contained in Chapter 4 or 7 the provision of this Chapter prevails. See sections 88(3) and 162(3).

332. See also section 361(2)(b)(iii) which states that Chapter 16 applies to goods destined for export under the outward processing procedure.

- (b) the requirements applicable to the clearance for outward processing of goods of that class or kind have been complied with, including requirements and conditions as may be—
  - (i) prescribed by rule;
  - (ii) specified in a tax levying Act referred to in paragraph (a); or 5
  - (iii) determined in terms of any other applicable legislation;
- (c) the person who clears the goods for outward processing—
  - (i) undertakes to comply with the requirements applicable to the outward processing of goods and the importation of outward processed compensating products obtained from those goods, including requirements and conditions as may be prescribed by rule, specified in a tax levying Act referred to in paragraph (a) or determined in terms of any other applicable legislation; and 10
  - (ii) gives security for the payment of any export tax that may become payable on the goods; and 15
- (d) measures have been taken to ensure that when goods are cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products obtained from the exported goods, those goods could be verified as compensating products obtained from those goods.

Persons entitled to submit clearance declarations for export of goods for outward processing 20

459. Only the following persons may, subject section 165(2), submit clearance declarations to clear goods for export under the outward processing procedure:<sup>333</sup>

- (a) The exporter of the goods, if that exporter is located in the Republic;
- (b) the agent in the Republic of the exporter, if that exporter is not located in the Republic; or 25
- (c) a customs broker referred to in section 165(1)(b).

Contents of clearance declarations for export of goods for outward processing

460. An export clearance declaration submitted in terms of Part 2 of Chapter 16 for the export of goods for outward processing must, in addition to the information required in terms of section 167, state— 30

- (a) that the goods are cleared for export for outward processing;
- (b) the item number in a tax levying Act referred to in section 458(a) authorising the clearance of goods of the relevant class or kind for outward processing;
- (c) details of any permit, permission or authorisation granted in respect of the goods in terms of any condition prescribed by rule or specified in a tax levying Act referred to in section 458(a) or determined in terms of any other applicable legislation; 35
- (d) the name and street address of the person to whom any such permit, permission or authorisation was granted; and 40
- (e) the kind of compensating products that will be obtained from the outward processing of those goods.

Release not to be limited to owners of goods

461. The customs authority may not limit the release of goods for export for outward processing to the owner of the goods, but may grant such release to any person complying with the requirements applicable to the outward processing of goods of that class or kind, including any requirements and conditions as may be prescribed by rule, specified in a tax levying Act referred to in section 458(a) or determined in terms of any other applicable legislation. 45

Release of goods for export under outward processing procedure

462. The release of the goods for export under the outward processing procedure is subject to compliance with any conditions or requirements—

- (a) referred to in section 458(c);
- (b) as may be prescribed by rule; or 5
- (c) as may be determined by the customs authority in terms of section 104 in a specific case.

Part 3Clearance and release for home use of outward processed compensating productsClearance of imported goods for home use as outward processed compensating products 10

463. Imported goods to be cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products must be cleared in accordance with section 456(b).

Conditions for clearance for home use of outward processed compensating products 15

464. Goods may be cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products only if—

- (a) those goods were obtained from goods exported from the Republic under the outward processing procedure;
- (b) the requirements applicable to the outward processing of the goods from which the compensating products were obtained have been complied with; and 20
- (c) any conditions subject to which those goods were released for export under the outward processing procedure in terms of section 462 have been complied with. 25

Time limits on clearance for home use of outward processed compensating products

465. (1) Compensating products obtained from goods exported from the Republic under the outward processing procedure may be cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products only if those compensating products were imported into the Republic — 30

- (a) within a timeframe as may be determined in a tax levying Act referred to in section 458(a) for the class or kind of goods from which those products were obtained or, if two or more tax levying Acts authorise the same class or kind of goods to be cleared for outward processing, within a period determined uniformly in those tax levying Acts for that class or kind of goods; or 35
- (b) if no period is in terms of paragraph (a) determined for the relevant class or kind of goods, within two years from the time of clearance<sup>334</sup> for outward processing of the goods from which those compensating products were obtained. 40

(2) A timeframe referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) is subject to extension or shortening in terms of section 908 or 909.

Importation of outward processed compensating products

466. Goods may be cleared and released for home use as outward processed compensating products despite the fact that— 45

- (a) only a part of the compensating products obtained from the goods exported for outward processing are imported;

- (b) the compensating products are imported in separate consignments, provided that a separate clearance declaration must be submitted in respect of each consignment; or
- (c) the compensating products are imported at a place of entry other than the place of exit from where the goods from which the products were obtained were originally exported. 5

Persons entitled to submit home use clearance declarations for outward processed compensating products

467. Only the following persons may, subject to section 165(2), submit clearance declarations to clear goods for home use as outward processed compensating products:<sup>335</sup> 10

- (a) The person who originally cleared the goods from which the compensating products were obtained for outward processing; or
- (b) a customs broker referred to in section 165(1)(b).

Contents of home use clearance declarations for outward processed compensating products 15

468. (1) A clearance declaration to clear goods for home use as outward processed compensating products must, in addition to the matters required in terms of section 167, state—

- (a) that the goods are cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products; 20
- (b) the reference number and date of the clearance declaration submitted in respect of the export for outward processing of the goods from which those compensating products were obtained;
- (c) the street address of the person to whom the compensating products are consigned; and 25
- (d) the date, number and particulars of any permit or other authorisation issued in terms of any legislation in respect of the import of the compensating products, if such a permit or authorisation is a requirement for the import of the products. 30

(2) The person clearing goods for home use as outward processed compensating products must on request by the customs authority submit a statement stating in relation to the exported goods from which those compensating products were obtained—

- (a) whether the exporter or any other person reclaimed any import or domestic tax paid on the goods when exported, and if so— 35
  - (i) the kind of tax; and
  - (ii) the amount of tax reclaimed; and
- (b) if any benefit was paid to the exporter or other person under any export incentive scheme applicable to the goods, whether in the form of a tax reduction or relief, an export or other subsidy, a rebate or reward or other benefit. 40

Provisions regulating outward processing procedure

Conversion rates for goods to compensating products

469. (1) The customs authority may in respect of any goods exported under the outward processing procedure approve a conversion rate that must for purposes of this Chapter be used for determining— 45

- (a) the quantity of compensating products that should in the ordinary course of processing the exported goods for the relevant purpose be obtained from those goods; or 50

- (b) the quantity of those exported goods that, in the ordinary course of processing the goods for the relevant purpose, would have been used in order to obtain a specific quantity of compensating products.
- (2) Quantities may for purposes of subsection (1) be determined by number, weight, volume or any other measuring unit, as may be appropriate. 5
- (3) In determining a conversion rate, account must be taken of any—
  - (a) evaporation;
  - (b) drying-out;
  - (c) any other losses that may result from the nature of the goods used; or
  - (d) any other relevant factors. 10

Identification measures

- 470. The customs authority may take such steps as are necessary for the accurate identification of compensating products obtained from goods exported under the outward processing procedure when those products are cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products, including by— 15
- (a) recording any specific marks or numbers on goods exported under the outward processing procedure before their export;
  - (b) taking any samples or making use of any illustrations or technical descriptions; and
  - (c) requesting any documentary evidence concerning the processing abroad of the exported goods. 20

Part 5

Other matters

Specific grounds for regarding goods exported under outward processing procedure to be cleared for outright export<sup>336</sup> 25

- 471. Goods exported under the outward processing procedure must in terms of section 114(1) for tax purposes be regarded to be cleared for outright export<sup>337</sup> if—
- (a) the exported goods are not used for outward processing;
  - (b) ownership of—
    - (i) the exported goods is transferred after the goods have been exported from the Republic; or
    - (ii) compensating products obtained from the processing of those exported goods is transferred before import of the products into the Republic;
  - (c) compensating products obtained from the processing of those exported goods— 35
    - (i) are not cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products within the timeframe applicable to the goods in terms of section 465; or
    - (ii) are cleared but after clearance are damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for and it is not proved in accordance with Part 2 of Chapter 25— 40
      - (aa) that the compensating products were damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for due to a recognised cause<sup>338</sup>; or
      - (bb) in the case of compensating products lost due to a recognised cause, that the products, after having been lost, have not gone into home use in any way; 45
  - (d) imported goods are cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products obtained from those exported goods and the customs authority refuses<sup>339</sup> to release those imported goods for home use as outward processed compensating products; 50

336. See section 114 for general grounds on which goods must or may be regarded to be cleared for outright export.

337. For tax implications if goods are regarded to be cleared for outright export, see section 159.

338. See definition of “recognised cause” in section 1.

339. See sections 99 and 100.

- (e) imported goods are cleared and released for home use as outward processed compensating products obtained from those exported goods and the customs authority withdraws<sup>340</sup> the release of those imported goods for home use as outward processed compensating products; or
- (f) the customs authority is notified that compensating products obtained from those exported goods will not be cleared for home use as outward processed compensating products. 5

Proportionate application of section 114(1) to goods exported under outward processing procedure

472. (a) When section 114(1) is in terms of section 471 applied to any goods exported under the outward processing procedure in circumstances where the ground for regarding the exported goods to be cleared for outright export pertains only to a part of the compensating products obtained from the exported goods, only a proportionate part of the exported goods must in terms of that section be regarded to be cleared for outright export. 15

(b) In determining the proportionate part of the exported goods that must be regarded to be cleared for outright export in terms of paragraph (a), a conversion rate determined in terms of section 469 must be used.

Effect on outward processed compensating products when goods exported for outward processing are regarded to be cleared for outright export 20

473. Compensating products obtained from goods exported under the outward processing procedure lose their tax free status as outward processed compensating products if those exported goods are in terms of section 114(1) regarded to be cleared for outright export.

Rules to facilitate implementation of this Chapter 25

474. Rules made in terms of section 903 to facilitate the implementation of this Chapter may include rules prescribing the form and format of a statement referred to in section 468(2).

Offences in terms of this Chapter

475. (1) A person clearing goods for outward processing is guilty of an offence if that person contravenes or fails to comply with a condition or requirement referred to in section 462 applicable to that person. 30

(2) An importer of goods is guilty of an offence if that person clears goods for home use as outward processed compensating products in contravention of section 464.

CHAPTER 21 35

CUSTOMS PROCESSING OF PERSONS ENTERING OR LEAVING REPUBLIC

Definitions

- 476. In this Chapter—
- “commercial goods” means items in the accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of a person entering or leaving the Republic that are imported into or exported from the Republic for commercial or other business purposes, and includes— 40
    - (a) items intended—
      - (i) to be sold, leased or otherwise commercially transacted; or
      - (ii) for use in a business or profession; and 45
    - (b) items which by reason of their nature, quantity, volume or other attribute can reasonably be classified as goods intended for commercial or other business purposes;

“personal effects” means items (new or used) in the accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of a person entering or leaving the Republic which that person has on or with him or her or takes along for, and reasonably required for, personal or own use, such as any wearing apparel, toilet articles, medicine, personal jewellery, watch, cellular phone, food and drinks and other items evidently on or with that person for personal or own use, but excludes— 5

- (a) in relation to a person entering the Republic, any of the above items to the extent that they fall within any of the categories of items that must be declared in terms of section 479(1); or
- (b) in relation to a person leaving the Republic, any of the above items to the extent that they fall within any of the categories of items that must be declared in terms of section 484(1); 10

“tax free allowance”<sup>341</sup>

- (a) in relation to a person entering the Republic, an amount uniformly fixed in the Customs Duty Act, the Excise Duty Act and the Value-Added Tax Act indicating the combined customs value of items in the accompanied and unaccompanied baggage of a person entering the Republic which such a person may import into the Republic free from any duty, levy or tax imposed by those Acts; or 15
- (b) in relation to a person leaving the Republic, an amount fixed in the Customs Duty Act indicating the combined customs value of items in the accompanied and unaccompanied baggage of a person leaving the Republic which such a person may export from the Republic free from export duty imposed by that Act;<sup>342</sup> 20

“tax free limit” means the maximum quantity of a specific class or kind of consumable goods uniformly fixed in the Customs Duty Act, the Excise Duty Act and the Value-added Tax Act that may in terms of those Acts be imported, as part of the accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of a person entering the Republic, free from any duty, levy or tax imposed by those Acts. 25

Purpose and application of this Chapter 30

- 477. (1) The purpose of this Chapter is to provide for—
- (a) the processing for customs purposes of persons entering or leaving the Republic; and
  - (b) such persons to declare their accompanied and unaccompanied baggage.
- (2) This Chapter applies, subject to subsection (3), to— 35
- (a) all persons entering or leaving the Republic, including crew members of a vessel, aircraft, train or vehicle; and
  - (b) the accompanied and unaccompanied baggage of such persons.
- (3) This Chapter does not apply<sup>343</sup> to—
- (a) persons who entered the Republic on board a foreign-going vessel or aircraft on their way to a destination outside the Republic and who— 40
    - (i) remain on board the vessel or aircraft on which they entered the Republic until the vessel or aircraft leaves the Republic;
    - (ii) disembark under customs supervision for transfer to another foreign-going vessel or aircraft on which they will leave the Republic; or 45
    - (iii) disembark for another reason but without leaving the transit area at a place of entry; and
  - (b) the accompanied and unaccompanied baggage of such persons that— 50
    - (i) remain on board the vessel or aircraft on which the baggage entered the Republic until the vessel or aircraft leaves the Republic; or
    - (ii) are transferred under customs supervision to another foreign-going vessel or aircraft on which the baggage will leave the Republic.

341. Rules under section 6 regulate the tax free allowance of BLNS countries.

342. This paragraph obviously only applies if a duty on the export of goods has been imposed in terms of the Customs Duty Act.

343. Note that this subsection does not prevent Customs from intervening in terms of Chapter 33 if a person referred to in this subsection is suspected of having prohibited goods in his or her possession or in his or her baggage.

478. (1) A person entering the Republic must—

- (a) subject to section 488, complete, and submit to the customs authority, a declaration containing such personal and travel information, including information concerning that person's accompanied and unaccompanied baggage, as may be prescribed by rule; and 5
- (b) declare all items in that person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage that must be declared in terms of section 479. 10

(2) When declaring accompanied or unaccompanied baggage items in terms of subsection (1), a person must furnish the customs authority, when requested to do so, with full particulars concerning those items, including any available invoices and other commercial documents relating to those items.

- (a) Any items that are commercial goods;
- (b) any items that that person brings into the Republic temporarily for later re-exportation from the Republic, distinguishing between— 20
  - (i) items to be re-exported in an unaltered state; and
  - (ii) items to be re-exported after being remodelled, processed, repaired or altered in the Republic;
- (c) any items previously taken out of the Republic that that person returns to the Republic, distinguishing between— 25
  - (i) items returned in an unaltered state; and
  - (ii) items that have undergone remodelling, processing, repair or alteration abroad;
- (d) any items that are prohibited, restricted or sectorally controlled goods; and
- (e) all other items in a person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage excluding— 30
  - (i) any items that are personal effects;
  - (ii) any items of a class or kind for which a tax free limit has been fixed and of which the quantity does not exceed that limit, subject to subsection (2)(a); and 35
  - (iii) any items of a class or kind to which the tax free allowance is to be applied and of which the combined customs value does not exceed that allowance, subject to subsection (2)(b).

(2) (a) If the total quantity of items of a specific class or kind referred to in subsection (1)(e)(ii) in a person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage exceeds the tax free limit fixed for that class or kind, the whole quantity of those items in that person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage must be declared in terms of subsection (1)(e). 40

(b) If the combined customs value of the items referred to in subsection (1)(e)(iii) in a person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage exceeds the tax free allowance, all those items in that person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage must be declared in terms of subsection (1)(e). 45

(3) Items in a person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage that must be declared in terms of subsection (1), must be declared whether or not the person entering the Republic is the owner of those items.

Clearance of accompanied and unaccompanied baggage items that must be declared<sup>344</sup>

480. (1) Section 89 applies to accompanied and unaccompanied baggage items that must be declared in terms of section 479(1), and such items must, subject to subsection (4), be cleared for home use<sup>345</sup> or a customs procedure,<sup>346</sup> as may be permissible in the circumstances. 5

(2) (a) Items in the accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of a person that must in terms of subsection (1) be cleared, may be cleared in accordance with simplified clearance requirements referred to in Part 3 of Chapter 24.

(b) Unless the customs authority determines otherwise in a specific case, paragraph (a) does not apply to commercial goods and such goods must be cleared in accordance with regular clearance requirements. 10

(3) A person may clear items in that person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage referred to in section 479(1)(b)(ii) for inward processing despite the fact that that person is not licensed as an importer of goods for inward processing.<sup>347</sup> 15

(4) Chapter 35 applies to items referred to in section 479(1)(d) and those items must be dealt with in accordance with that Chapter.

(5) Items in a person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage that are in terms of section 479(1)(e)(i), (ii) or (iii) excluded from the requirement to be declared may be imported without any clearance formalities.<sup>348</sup> 20

Import tax payable on accompanied and unaccompanied baggage items

481. (1) If any items in the accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of a person cleared in terms of section 480 attract import tax in terms of a tax levying Act on account of that clearance—

(a) the rate at which those items attract import tax must be determined and the tax must be assessed in accordance with that tax levying Act, subject to subsection (2),<sup>349</sup> and 25

(b) any such import tax must be paid on demand unless the tax levying Act regulating that tax specifically provides otherwise for taxable accompanied or unaccompanied baggage items. 30

(2) A person may instead of paying an amount of import tax determined in accordance with subsection (1)(a) on any items in his or her accompanied or unaccompanied baggage declared in terms of section 479(1)(e) and which consist of goods specified in a tax levying Act as goods to which the tax free allowance may be applied, elect to have import tax on those items assessed as follows:<sup>350</sup> 35

(a) Items selected by that person of which the combined customs value is within the tax free allowance: no import tax payable on those items;

(b) items selected by that person from items not already selected in terms of paragraph (a), of which the combined customs value does not exceed an upper limit uniformly fixed in the Customs Duty Act, the Excise Duty Act and the 40

344. In this Act a distinction is drawn between declaring goods and clearing goods. To “declare” goods means to disclose the goods and provide any required information concerning the goods to a customs officer. To “clear” goods means to formally enter the goods for home use or a customs procedure. See definitions in section 1.

345. This could be a clearance for home use under Chapter 8 or, in the case of section 479(1)(c)(i), a clearance for home use under the inbound leg of the temporary export procedure or in the case of section 479(1)(c)(ii), a clearance for home use under the inbound leg of the outward processing procedure.

346. The inbound leg of the temporary admission procedure would be permissible in the case of section 479(1)(b)(i), and the inbound leg of the inward processing procedure would be permissible in the case of section 479(1)(b)(ii).

347. See licensing requirement in section 634(2)(a).

348. See section 91(1)(e). It also follows that no import tax is payable on these baggage items as no tax is payable on imported goods exempted from clearance formalities. All taxes on imported goods are in terms of the applicable tax levying Acts based on clearance for home use.

349. This provision generally applies to all accompanied and unaccompanied baggage items cleared in terms of section 480 for home use.

350. It is to be noted that this subsection is limited to items declared in terms of section 479(1)(e)(iii) and cannot therefore be applied to commercial goods that must be declared in terms of section 479(1)(a).

Value-added Tax Act: import tax payable on those items at a flat rate of import tax uniformly fixed in the Customs Duty Act, the Excise Duty Act and the Value-added Tax Act; and

- (c) any remaining items not already selected in terms of paragraph (a) or (b): import tax payable on those items at the rates payable in terms of the applicable tax levying Acts. 5

Place where incoming traveller and crew declarations must be submitted

482. Section 478(1) and (2) must be complied with—

- (a) in the case of a person who entered the Republic on a foreign-going vessel, at the customs seaport where that person disembarks from the vessel; 10
 (b) in the case of a person who entered the Republic on a foreign-going aircraft, at the customs airport where that person disembarks from the aircraft;
 (c) in the case of a person who entered the Republic on a cross-border railway carriage, at the rail traveller terminal where that person disembarks from the railway carriage; or 15
 (d) in the case of a person who entered the Republic in a vehicle or on foot, at the land border-post where the person entered the Republic.

Part 2

Persons leaving Republic

Outgoing traveller and crew declarations 20

483. (1) A person in the process of leaving the Republic must—

- (a) subject to section 488, complete and submit to the customs authority a declaration containing such personal and travel information, including information concerning that person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage, as may be prescribed by rule; and 25
 (b) declare all items in that person's accompanied or unaccompanied baggage that must be declared in terms of section 484.

  - (c) import or export tax already paid on the destroyed goods by virtue of that clearance may in accordance with the tax levying Act regulating that tax be refunded to the person who paid the tax, unless provided otherwise in that Act;<sup>381</sup> and 20
  - (d) parts or materials that have been salvaged from the destroyed goods or that are salvageable, must, in the case of imported goods, within a period prescribed by rule read with sections 908 and 909—

(b) compensating products imported into the Republic under the outward processing procedure<sup>386</sup> that were damaged, destroyed or lost or became unaccounted for before being released for home use as outward processed compensating products.

(2) This Part does not apply to compensating products referred to in subsection (1) that were seized or confiscated or were abandoned to the Commissioner.<sup>387</sup>

Notification of compensating products damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for

549. (1) The customs authority must within a period and in a manner as may be prescribed by rule read with section 908, be notified if compensating products to which this Part applies are damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for.

(2) A notification referred to in subsection (1) must be submitted—

(a) in the case of damaged, destroyed or lost compensating products, by the person who was in physical control of the compensating products when they were damaged, destroyed or lost; or

(b) in the case of compensating products unaccounted for, by—

(i) the licensee of the premises where the goods from which the compensating products are obtained were processed; or

(ii) the person who is responsible for the compensating products and who discovered or was notified that the compensating products are unaccounted for.

(3) Subsection (2) does not prevent any of the following persons to submit the notification referred to in subsection (1):

(a) The person who initially cleared the goods from which the compensating products were obtained for inward or outward processing;

(b) the customs broker who submitted the clearance declaration in respect of those goods;

(c) the owner of the compensating products; or

(d) any other person who has a material interest in the compensating products.

(c) state the number and date of the clearance declaration of the goods from which the compensating products were obtained;

(d) give a detailed account of how, when and where the compensating products became damaged, destroyed, lost or unaccounted for;

(e) contain any other particulars as may be prescribed by rule; and

(f) be accompanied by documentary proof referred to in section 551, 552, 553 or 554, as may be applicable.

Consequences of failure to notify

550. If the customs authority is not notified in accordance with section 549 of compensating products to which this Part applies that were damaged, destroyed or lost or became unaccounted for—

(a) section 430(1)<sup>388</sup> or 472,<sup>389</sup> as may be appropriate, must be applied to the goods from which the compensating products were obtained; and

(b) the compensating products must, in the case of compensating products under the outward processing procedure, for tax purposes be regarded to be cleared for home use under Chapter 8.<sup>390</sup>

386. See Chapter 20.

387. See section 556 for seized, confiscated or abandoned goods that are damaged, destroyed or lost or unaccounted for.

388. For compensating products under the inward processing procedure.

389. For compensating products under the outward processing procedure.

390. Section 154 applies if goods are regarded to be cleared for home use.

Damaged compensating products

- 551. (1) A notification in terms of section 549 in relation to damaged compensating products must be accompanied by documentary proof if the compensating products were damaged due to—
- (a) a natural occurrence; 5
  - (b) an accident;
  - (c) a hostile act by a third party; or
  - (d) the inherent characteristics of the compensating products.
- (2) If the customs authority accepts documentary proof submitted to it in terms of subsection (1) that the compensating products were damaged due to a cause referred to in that subsection, the damaged compensating products— 10
- (a) in the case of compensating products under the inward processing procedure, must—
    - (i) continue to be dealt with as inward processed compensating products in accordance with the inward processing procedure or be dealt with in terms of section 424 as by-products or commercially valuable waste obtained from the processing of goods under that procedure; 15
    - (ii) be abandoned to the Commissioner in accordance with Chapter 26; or
    - (iii) at the expense of a person referred to in section 549(2) or (3) be destroyed under customs supervision; or 20

    - (ii) be abandoned to the Commissioner in accordance with Chapter 26; or
    - (iii) at the expense of a person referred to in section 549(2) or (3) be destroyed under customs supervision; or

391. Section 424(1) provides for by-products or commercially valuable waste to be cleared and released for export under the inward processing procedure as if the by-products or waste were inward processed compensating products. Alternatively it could be allowed into free circulation in accordance with section 424(2).

- (b) the outward processing procedure, any parts or materials that may have been salvaged or are salvageable from the destroyed compensating products, may—
  - (i) be cleared under the outward processing procedure for home use as outward processed compensating products; 5

Basic principle governing this Part

- (iii) the prospects of collecting any amounts owed to the Commissioner; and
- (iv) the costs associated with collection;

- (d) whether the matter involves a situation where a participant or a group of participants in a tax avoidance arrangement has accepted the Commissioner's position in the dispute, and settlement offers the best prospect of unwinding such tax avoidance arrangements; and
- (e) whether settlement of the dispute will promote compliance with tax legislation by the person concerned or a group of taxpayers or a section of the public in a cost-effective way. 10

Refusal to grant application

(2) A report in terms of subsection (1) may not disclose the identity of the persons concerned and must contain details of the number of voluntary disclosure agreements and the amount of tax revenue forgone.

Anonymous voluntary disclosures 10

872. (1) The customs authority may on request by an anonymous person issue a nonbinding private opinion as to that person's eligibility for voluntary disclosure relief in terms of this Part, including the probable amount of any duty or interest that would be payable, or of any refund or drawback that would have to be paid back, to the Commissioner were the relief to be granted. 15

(2) A request in terms of subsection (1) must provide sufficient information to enable the customs authority to comply with the request, but need not identify any person responsible for causing the faulty duty determination.

CHAPTER 39

ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES

Types of administrative penalties

874. There are for purposes of enforcing this Act the following types of administrative penalties: 30

- (a) Fixed amount penalties referred to in section 876;
- (b) prosecution avoidance penalties referred to in section 878;
- (c) termination of seizure penalties referred to in section 881;
- (d) withdrawal of confiscation penalties referred to in section 881; and 35
- (e) missing goods penalties referred to in section 882.

Part 1

Administrative penalties for breaches of this Act

Punishment for breaches of this Act

875. If a person commits a breach of this Act, the customs authority may— 40

- (a) in the case of a non-prosecutable breach, impose a fixed amount penalty for the breach; or
- (b) in the case of a prosecutable breach—
  - (i) impose a prosecution avoidance penalty for the breach; or
  - (ii) lay a charge for the institution of criminal proceedings for the breach. 45

Fixed amount penalties

876. (1) (a) The Minister must by notice in the Gazette list non-prosecutable breaches of this Act for which fixed amount penalties may be imposed.

(b) A notice in terms of paragraph (a) must list non-prosecutable breaches under the different categories as set out in subsection (2). 5

(2) The fixed amount penalties for the different categories of non-prosecutable breaches of this Act are as follows:

FIXED AMOUNT PENALTIES

Category of breach	Amount of penalty
Category A	Maximum of R5 000 <sup>463</sup>
Category B	R10 000
Category C	R15 000
Category D	R20 000

(3) (a) If a person has been penalised in terms of section 877 for committing a non-prosecutable breach and within a period of three years after the penalty has been imposed, again commits the same non-prosecutable breach, the amount of the fixed amount penalty that may be imposed for that breach is double the applicable amount for that breach in terms of subsection (2). 10 15

(b) If a person has in accordance with paragraph (a) been penalised for committing a non-prosecutable breach with an amount double the applicable amount for that breach and thereafter, within the remaining part of the same three year period, again commits the same non-prosecutable breach, the amount of the fixed amount penalty that may be imposed for each time that breach was committed during the remaining part of that three year period, is three times the applicable amount for that breach in terms of subsection (2). 20 25

Procedure for imposing fixed amount penalties

877. (1) If a person commits a non-prosecutable breach of this Act, the customs authority may by notice to that person impose the appropriate fixed amount penalty for the breach in accordance with section 876. 30

(2) A penalty imposed in terms of subsection (1) must be paid to the Commissioner on or before a date stated in the notice or to which that date may have been postponed in terms of section 908.

(3) (a) The customs authority may for a Category A breach referred to in the Table in section 876(2), instead of imposing a fixed amount penalty for the breach, issue a written warning to the person who committed the breach. 35

(b) A warning issued to a person in terms of paragraph (a) must for purposes of section 876(3) be regarded to be a fixed amount penalty imposed on that person.

Prosecution avoidance penalties

878. (1) A prosecution avoidance penalty may, instead of a criminal prosecution, be imposed on a person who becomes liable to prosecution for any prosecutable breach of this Act. 40

(2) Subsection (1) may not be applied to a person who on—

(a) two separate occasions paid a prosecution avoidance penalty for a Category 1 offence and within a period of five years from the date of payment of the penalty on the first occasion again becomes liable to prosecution for a Category 1 offence; 45

(b) three separate occasions paid a prosecution avoidance penalty for a Category 2 offence and within a period of five years from the date of payment of the penalty on the first occasion again becomes liable to prosecution for a Category 2 offence; or 50

463. See section 877(3) for warning instead of penalty. A warning counts as a penalty for purposes of section 876(3).

- (c) three separate occasions paid a prosecution avoidance penalty for any offence in terms of this Act and within a period of five years from the date of payment of the penalty on the first occasion again becomes liable to prosecution for an offence in terms of this Act.

Procedure for imposing prosecution avoidance penalties 5

879. (1) If a person is liable to prosecution for a prosecutable breach of this Act, the customs authority may, subject to section 878(2), issue to that person a notice informing that person of the alleged breach and that prosecution can be avoided if that person elects to have the matter summarily settled by the customs authority by paying a prosecution avoidance penalty to the Commissioner on or before a date stated in the notice. 10

(2) The amount of a prosecution avoidance penalty imposed in terms of subsection (1)—

- (a) must be determined in accordance with any limits as may be set by the Commissioner; and
 (b) may not exceed the maximum fine a court may impose upon conviction of a person for the relevant breach. 15

(3) Payment of a prosecution avoidance penalty in terms of this section—

- (a) does not amount to a conviction of the person paying the penalty in respect of the relevant breach; and
 (b) indemnifies the person from prosecution for that breach. 20

Effect of detention, seizure or confiscation of goods on application of this Part

880. The detention, seizure or confiscation of goods in terms of this Act does not prevent the application of this Part in relation to breaches of this Act committed in respect of those goods.

Part 2 25

Other administrative penalties

Termination of seizure and withdrawal of confiscation penalties

881. (1) If the customs authority approves an application in terms of 765 to terminate a seizure or in terms of section 768 to withdraw a confiscation of goods, the customs authority may as a condition for the approval of the application require the applicant to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding the customs value of the goods or, in the case of goods manufactured in an excise warehouse, the value of the goods as determined in terms of the Excise Duty Act. 30

(2) A penalty imposed in terms of subsection (1) must be paid to the Commissioner on or before a date stated in the notice referred to in section 765(7) or 768(7) or to which that date may have been postponed in terms of section 908. 35

Missing goods penalties for goods to be confiscated

882. (1) If goods that are liable to confiscation are to be seized in terms of section 762 and the goods cannot readily be found, the customs authority may, in lieu of the goods, by notice to any one or more of the following persons impose a missing goods penalty equal to the customs value of the goods or, in the case of goods manufactured in an excise warehouse, the value of the goods as determined in terms of the Excise Duty Act: 40

- (a) The person who committed the act which rendered the goods liable to confiscation;
 (b) the person in whose possession the goods were or on reasonable grounds believed to have been immediately before the decision to seize the goods; 45
 (c) the importer or exporter of the goods or, if the importer or exporter is not located in the Republic, the agent in the Republic of the importer or exporter; or
 (d) the person who was the owner of the goods at the time of the decision to seize the goods or, if the owner is not located in the Republic, the agent in the Republic of the owner. 50

(2) A penalty imposed in terms of subsection (1) must be paid to the Commissioner on or before a date stated in the notice or to which that date may have been postponed in terms of section 908.

Part 3

General matters

5

Applicability of Chapter 37 proceedings<sup>464</sup>

883. (1) The proceedings provided for in Chapter 37, as may be appropriate in the circumstances, apply in respect of—

(a) the imposition of an administrative penalty; or

(2) Only the amount of a prosecution avoidance penalty and not the imposition of the penalty is subject to proceedings in terms of Part 3, 4 or 5 of Chapter 37.<sup>465</sup>

Rules to facilitate implementation of this Chapter

884. Rules made in terms of section 903 to facilitate the implementation of this Chapter may include rules prescribing the form and format of a notice referred to in section 877(1), 879(1) or 882(1) and the information which such a notice must contain.

Offences in terms of this Chapter

885. A person is guilty of an offence if that person has repeatedly for at least five times within a calendar year been penalised in terms of section 877 for committing a non-prosecutable breach or breaches of this Act and that person thereafter again commits a non-prosecutable breach of this Act within the same calendar year.

Application of this Act, Customs Duty Act and Excise Duty Act as from effective date 30

927. As from the effective date—

  - (i) all goods and persons that are or become subject to customs control in terms of Chapter 2, excluding— 35
    - (aa) goods and persons referred to in section 929(1) to which, and whilst, the 1964 Act continues to apply in terms of that section; and

- (b) the Customs Duty Act applies to the extent indicated in that Act in relation to—
  - (i) all goods and persons that are or become subject to customs control in terms of Chapter 2 of this Act, excluding goods and persons referred to in section 929(1) to which, and whilst, the 1964 Act continues to apply in terms of that section; and 45
  - (ii) all other persons and matters regulated or otherwise affected by the Customs Duty Act; and
- (c) the Excise Duty Act applies to the extent indicated in that Act in relation to—
  - (i) all goods and persons regulated or otherwise affected by that Act, excluding goods and persons referred to in section 929(1) of this Act to which, and whilst, the 1964 Act continues to apply in terms of that section; and 50
  - (ii) all other matters regulated or otherwise affected by that Act.

473. Rules and these other instruments are excluded as they form part of the notion of the 1964 Act. See definition above of “1964 Act”.

474. The measures contemplated here include only those issued “in terms of” the 1964 Act, i.e those that were issued legally. Measures that were issued illegally as if authorised in terms of the 1964 Act are not included here.

Continuation of measures under 1964 Act for purposes of this Act, Customs Duty Act and Excise Duty Act

928. (1) Despite the enactment of this Act, the Customs Duty Act and the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013, any measure in force in terms of the 1964 Act immediately before the effective date in relation to any goods or a person or matter contemplated in section 927(a), (b) or (c), continues on and after the effective date to be in force in relation to those goods or that person or matter but only if and to the extent that a measure of a corresponding kind can in relation to those goods or that person or matter be issued, granted, imposed or made after the effective date in terms of this Act, the Customs Duty Act or the Excise Duty Act.<sup>475</sup>

(2) A measure that continues in force in terms of subsection (1) must for all purposes, including for purposes of any future amendment, substitution, repeal, withdrawal or suspension thereof, be regarded to have been issued, granted, imposed or made in terms of the relevant enabling provision of this Act, the Customs Duty Act or the Excise Duty Act, as the case may be, which provides for a measure of a corresponding kind to be issued, granted or imposed on or after the effective date.<sup>476</sup>

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) must be read subject to sections 931 to 939.

Continued application of 1964 Act on and after effective date in relation to certain goods and persons

929. (1) The 1964 Act continues to be in force in relation to the following goods and persons as fully and effectually as if this Act, the Customs Duty Act and the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013, had not been enacted:

- (a) goods which, immediately before the effective date, were subject to or being dealt with in terms of an entry in terms of the 1964 Act;
- (b) inbound travellers and crew who arrived in the Republic<sup>477</sup> before the effective date; and
- (c) the accompanied and unaccompanied baggage of travellers and crew referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) The 1964 Act continues to apply to goods referred to in subsection (1)(a) only for as long as those goods are subject to or being dealt with under the entry referred to in that subsection.

(3) If a person desires or is required in terms of the 1964 Act to deal with goods referred to in subsection (1)(a), or any products derived from those goods, in a way or for a purpose which in terms of the 1964 Act requires a further entry for the goods or a separate entry for those products, the following principles<sup>478</sup> apply:

- (a) If those goods are imported goods and that person desires or is required in terms of the 1964 Act to enter the goods for home consumption or to replace the current entry with an entry for home consumption—
  - (i) the 1964 Act ceases to be available for the entry of such goods for home consumption;
  - (ii) the goods must be cleared in terms of this Act for home use as if the current entry of the goods were a clearance in terms of this Act; and
  - (iii) the 1964 Act ceases to apply and this Act become applicable to the goods as from the time of clearance of the goods for home use.
- (b) If those goods, or any products derived from those goods, are imported goods or goods produced subject to customs control in the Republic<sup>479</sup> (excluding excisable, fuel levy, environmental levy or Road Accident Fund levy goods

475. The implication is that a 1964 Act measure lapses if the Customs Control Act, the Customs Duty Act or the Excise Duty Act does not provide for a measure of a corresponding kind to be issued, granted, imposed or made in relation to those goods or that person or matter.

476. The purpose of subsection (2) is to enable the amendment, substitution, suspension, withdrawal or repeal of these measures in terms of the new Acts.

477. See section 2 of the Customs Control Act for time of arrival of persons in the Republic.

478. Section 942 provides for rules to regulate the implementation of these principles.

479. For example products derived from the processing of imported goods under rebate of duty.

- manufactured in the Republic) and that person desires or is required in terms of the 1964 Act to enter those goods or those products for a purpose or procedure which is a customs procedure in terms of this Act—
- (i) the 1964 Act ceases to be available for the entry of the goods or those products for such purpose or procedure; 5
  - (ii) the goods or those products must be cleared in terms of this Act for that customs procedure as if the current entry of the goods were a clearance in terms of this Act; and
  - (iii) this Act becomes applicable to the goods or those products as from the time of clearance of the goods or those products for that customs procedure. 10
- (c) If the goods are excisable, fuel levy, environmental levy or Road Accident Fund levy goods manufactured in the Republic and that person desires or is required in terms of the 1964 Act to enter those goods for home consumption— 15
- (i) the goods must be entered in terms of the Excise Duty Act for home consumption; and
  - (ii) the Excise Duty Act applies to the goods as from the time of entry of the goods for home consumption. 20
- (d) If those goods are excisable, fuel levy, environmental levy or Road Accident Fund levy goods manufactured in the Republic and that person desires or is required in terms of the 1964 Act to enter the goods for a purpose or procedure which is not a customs procedure in terms of this Act<sup>480</sup>— 25
- (i) the goods must be entered in terms of the Excise Duty Act for that purpose or procedure; and
  - (ii) the Excise Duty Act applies to the goods as from the time of entry of the goods for that purpose or procedure. 30
- (e) If those goods are excisable, fuel levy, environmental levy or Road Accident Fund levy goods manufactured in the Republic and that person desires or is required in terms of the 1964 Act to enter the goods for a purpose or procedure which is a customs procedure in terms of this Act<sup>481</sup> — 35
- (i) the 1964 Act ceases to be available for the entry of the goods for such purpose or procedure;
  - (ii) the goods must be cleared in terms of this Act for that customs procedure as if the current entry of the goods were a clearance in terms of this Act; and 40
  - (iii) this Act becomes applicable to the goods as from the time of clearance of the goods for that customs procedure.
- (4) If this Act becomes applicable to any goods in terms of subsection (3), any relevant tax levying Act must to the extent applicable be applied to the goods in accordance with the provisions of that tax levying Act. 45
- (5) In this section “current entry” means—
- (a) an entry referred to in subsection (1)(a); or
  - (b) if the goods have been entered in terms of the Excise Duty Act as contemplated in subsection (3)(d), the entry referred to in that subsection. 45
- (6) The implementation of the principles set out in subsection (3) may be regulated by rules prescribed by the Commissioner.

Continuation of measures under 1964 Act for purposes of goods and persons referred to in section 929(1)

- 930. (1) Despite the enactment of this Act, the Customs Duty Act and the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013, any measure in force in terms of the 1964 Act immediately before the effective date in relation to any goods or person referred to in section 929(1)(a), (b) or (c), continues on and after the effective date to be in force in relation to those goods or that person, as fully and effectually as if this Act, the Customs Duty Act and the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013, had not been enacted. 50 55
- (2) A measure that continues in force in terms of subsection (1) continues as such subject to any future amendment, substitution, repeal, withdrawal or suspension thereof in terms of the relevant provision of the 1964 Act, which provision may for the purposes of such measure be applied as if this Act, the Customs Duty Act and the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013, had not been enacted.<sup>482</sup>

481. For instance if such goods are to be exported.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) must be read subject to sections 931 to 939.

(4) If this Act becomes applicable in terms of section 929(3) to goods referred to in subsection (1)—

(a) this section ceases to apply; and

(b) section 928 becomes applicable to a measure that is in force in relation to those goods.

Continuation of existing customs registrations

931. (1) An existing customs registration lapses 30 days after the effective date unless the holder of that registration before the expiry of that period submits in terms of Chapter 28 an application to the customs authority for a new registration to replace the existing customs registration.<sup>483</sup>

(2) If the holder of an existing customs registration applies for a new registration before the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (1), the existing customs registration continues in terms of section 928(1) for all purposes until the application for a new registration is dispensed with in terms of Chapter 28.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply in a case where this Act requires licensing for a matter in respect of which the 1964 Act required registration, and in such a case—

(a) the holder of the existing customs registration must apply in terms of section 933 for a licence; and

(b) that section applies as if the existing customs registration is an existing customs licence and the holder of that registration is a licensee.

(4) Subsection (2) may not be read as preventing the customs authority from amending, withdrawing or suspending the existing registration in terms of section 928(2) before the application is dispensed with.

Continuation of existing excise registrations

932. An existing excise registration is not affected by the enactment of this Act, and such a registration continues in terms of section 928(1) to be in force after the effective date for all purposes until the registration is replaced by a new registration, is withdrawn or lapses in terms of the Excise Duty Act.<sup>484</sup>

Continuation of existing customs licences

933. (1) An existing customs licence lapses 30 days after the effective date unless the licensee before the expiry of that period submits in terms of Chapter 29 an application to the customs authority for a new licence to replace the existing customs licence.<sup>485</sup>

(2) If the licensee of an existing customs licence applies for a new licence before the expiry of the period referred to in paragraph (a), the existing customs licence continues in terms of section 928(1) for all purposes until the application for a new licence is dispensed with in terms of Chapter 29.

(3) Sections 662 and 663 apply if an application for a new licence is refused and the existing customs licence lapses.

(4) Subsection (2) may not be read as preventing the customs authority from amending, withdrawing or suspending the existing licence in terms of section 928(2) before the application is dispensed with.

482. The purpose of subsection (2) is to enable these existing measures to be amended, substituted, suspended, withdrawn or repealed in terms of the 1964 Act as and when necessary.

483. Persons may pursuant to section 14 of the Interpretation Act at any time before the effective date apply for a new registration provided the application is lodged after the date of promulgation of this Act.

484. It is to be noted that certain registrations granted before the effective date under the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, such as those relating to excise matters, are not affected by Chapter 28, and those registrations continue under the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, as amended (and renamed the Excise Duty Act) by the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013.

485. Persons may pursuant to section 14 of the Interpretation Act at any time before the effective date apply for a new licence provided the application is lodged after the date of promulgation of this Act.

934. An existing excise licence is not affected by the enactment of this Act, and such a licence continues in terms of section 928(1) to be in force after the effective date for all purposes until the licence is replaced by a new licence, is withdrawn or lapses in terms of the Excise Duty Act.<sup>486</sup>

5

Continuation of accredited status granted before effective date in terms of 1964 Act

935. (1) Accredited status granted before the effective date in terms of the 1964 Act to a person who on the effective date is the holder of—

- (a) an existing customs registration or an existing customs licence, lapses on the effective date despite section 928(1) but subject to subsection (2); and 10
- (b) an existing excise registration or an existing excise licence, continues in terms of section 928(1) to apply after the effective date for all purposes until that accredited status is replaced by a new accredited status, is withdrawn or lapses in terms of the Excise Duty Act.

(2) Subsection (1)(a) does not affect any second or third level accredited status granted in terms of section 64E of the 1964 Act to a person referred to in that subsection, except that— 15

- (a) any second level accredited status granted to such a person must for all purposes be regarded to be first level accredited status granted to such a person in terms Chapter 30; and 20
- (b) any third level accredited status granted to such a person must for all purposes be regarded to be second level accredited status granted to such a person in terms of Chapter 30.

936. (1) An approval granted before the effective date in terms of Chapter XB of the 1964 Act to a right-holder in relation to protected goods, lapses 30 days after the effective date unless that right-holder before the expiry of that period pays to the Commissioner the prescribed administration fee applicable in terms of Chapter 36 of this Act to applications for such approvals. 30

(2) If a right-holder referred to in subsection (1) pays the prescribed administration fee before the expiry of the period referred to in that subsection, the existing approval under the 1964 Act continues in terms of section 928(1) after the effective date for all purposes until the approval lapses or is withdrawn earlier in terms of Chapter 36.

Continuation of security given before effective date in terms of 1964 Act

937. (1) Any security provided by a person to the Commissioner before the effective date in terms of the 1964 Act may after the effective date but before the expiry date of the security (if any), be utilised by the customs authority for the payment or recovery of tax or other money owed to the Commissioner in terms of the 1964 Act in respect of—

- (a) the specific goods for which it was given; 40
- (b) the class or kind or other category of goods for which it was given; or
- (c) the purpose for which it was given.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect the customs authority's power to require new or additional security from a person in terms of Chapter 31 for purposes of this Act or in terms of the Excise Duty Act for purposes of that Act. 45

<sup>486</sup> It is to be noted that certain licences issued before the effective date under the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, such as those relating to excise matters, are not affected by Chapter 29, and those licences continue under the renamed Excise Duty Act.

Administrative and judicial proceedings

- 938. The enactment of this Act, the Customs Duty Act and the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013, does not affect the institution, continuation, completion or enforcement of any administrative, civil or criminal proceedings—

- (2) Subsection (1) may not be read as preventing a customs officer or another SARS official conducting the investigation from applying any investigative powers under this Act for purposes of the investigation. 20

Continuation of certain international agreements

- 940. The enactment of this Act, the Customs Duty Act and the Customs and Excise Amendment Act, 2013, does not affect the binding force and continued application in the Republic of an international agreement that was incorporated into law in the Republic before the effective date for implementation as part of the 1964 Act. 25

References in legislation to Customs and Excise Act, 1964

- 941. As from the effective date a reference in any legislation that existed on that date to— 30
- (a) the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, must, as the context may demand and given the restructuring of that Act as from that date, be read as a reference to—
    - (i) the Excise Duty Act;
    - (ii) the Customs Duty Act;
    - (iii) this Act; or 35
    - (iv) any two of or all the Acts referred to in subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii); and

  - (b) any transitional matter not provided or not adequately provided for in this Part if—
    - (i) the absence of such provision or of adequate provision may put the payment or collection of tax or compliance with any applicable legislation at risk; or 50
    - (ii) regulation of such matter is otherwise necessary for an orderly and effective transition.

Commencement of Chapter 22

943. (1) Chapter 22 does not take effect on the effective date but on a later date determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

(2) Until Chapter 22 of this Act takes effect on the date determined in terms of subsection (1), the 1964 Act continues to apply to all international postal articles handled by the South African Post Office. 5

(3) As from the later date referred to in subsection (1), Chapter 22 and the other provisions of this Act affecting international postal articles handled by the South African Post Office take effect subject to such transitional rules as may be prescribed by rule.

944. (1) This Act is called the Customs Control Act, 2013, and takes effect on a date determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette, subject to subsection (2) and section 943.

(2) A date may not be determined in terms of subsection (1) for the commencement of this Act unless and until— 15

- (b) the Excise Duty Act is amended by the addition of an Excise Tariff in an Annexure to that Act.

MEMORANDUM ON OBJECTS OF CUSTOMS CONTROL BILL, 2013

1. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

The Customs Control Bill (“the Bill”) is intended to replace the provisions of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964 (Act No. 91 of 1964), relating to customs control of all means of transport, goods and persons entering or leaving the Republic. Provisions of the 1964 Act covering customs and excise duties will be contained in separate legislation, namely, a Customs Duty Bill and an Excise Duty Bill.

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

The primary object of the Bill is to establish systems and procedures for customs control of all means of transport, goods and persons entering or leaving the Republic, whether by land, sea or air. The rationale for this control is, firstly, to ensure that any taxes imposed by various other laws on imported and exported goods are collected and, secondly, that other laws regulating the import or export of specific goods are complied with. The Bill can therefore be described as a law that will serve as a “platform” for the implementation of laws that will in relation to imported and exported goods rely for their implementation on this Bill, such as the proposed Customs Duty Act, the proposed Excise Act, the VAT Act, 1991, and the Diamond Export Levy Act, 2007, and also a host of other laws prohibiting, restricting or regulating the import or export of certain goods such as arms and ammunition, protected species, goods that are subject to permit control and counterfeit goods.

3. SUMMARY OF BILL

- 3.1 The proposed customs control established by the Bill is in accordance with current international treaties, trends and best practice and gives effect to the Republic’s international obligations in this regard. Although all goods and persons that enter or leave the Republic become subject to customs control in terms of the Bill, the focal points of control in terms of the Bill are the seaports, airports and land border-posts where goods and persons, including vessels, aircraft, trains and vehicles, normally enter or leave the Republic. To ensure effective implementation of customs control, the Bill provides for elaborate systems and procedures for the customs processing of all goods and persons at these “places of entry” and “places of exit”, including a notification and reporting system tracking the arrival and departure of vessels, aircraft, trains, vehicles, persons and goods entering or leaving the Republic.
- 3.2 For the customs control of goods the Bill determines the procedural requirements that must be complied with when goods are imported into or exported from the Republic.
  - (a) Goods may only be imported or exported through recognised places of entry or exit respectively. At these places of entry or exit goods are required first to be “cleared” by the importer or exporter and “released” by Customs before the goods are allowed to be proceeded with in, or to be exported from, the Republic. For goods imported or exported by rail, the process is different as such goods are required to be cleared at certain railway stations designated as rail cargo terminals.
  - (b) Imported goods must be cleared by the importer either for home use, i.e. the consumption, utilisation, processing or disposal of the goods in the Republic, or for a customs procedure that may be permissible in the circumstances. Similarly, goods intended for export may only be exported after being cleared by the exporter for export or a customs procedure that allows goods to be exported under that procedure. If goods are not cleared or are proceeded with without release, the goods are regarded to be “diverted” goods and as such become illegal imports or exports. Such goods are apart from attracting criminal and punitive administrative sanctions regarded for tax purposes to be cleared for home use or a customs procedure that renders the goods taxable.

- 3.3 The Bill provides for goods to be cleared for the following customs procedures: national or international transit, excise warehouse transit, transshipment, temporary admission, warehousing, tax free shop, stores, export, temporary export, inward processing, home use processing and outward processing. Each of these customs procedures allows goods under the procedure to be dealt with in a specific way. These customs procedures are not open options for an importer or exporter but may be utilised only in circumstances permitted in the Bill or the tax levying Acts for the respective procedures. Clearance processes and requirements are extensively dealt with in the Bill, mostly in a standardised way for all clearances. The Bill also makes provision for the fast-tracking of clearance and release of goods in accordance with procedures less cumbersome than the standard procedures.
- 3.4 When imported goods are released for home use, the goods are allowed into free circulation in the Republic without any further customs control. The release of goods for a customs procedure, however, does not free the goods from customs control and such goods remain under customs control until the goods are cleared and released for home use or re-exported.
- 3.5 The Bill confers a specific tax status on goods when the goods are cleared for home use or a customs procedure. The tax status is either tax due or tax free. A tax due status indicates that any tax that may have been imposed on goods of the relevant class or kind must be paid upon clearance of the goods. This is usually the case with goods cleared for home use. A tax free status means that whilst the goods have a tax free status no tax is payable on the goods. Tax includes customs duty, excise duty, VAT and any other tax payable on the import or export of goods. It is to be noted that a tax free status conferred by a customs procedure on goods only continues for as long as the goods remain under that customs procedure. When the goods are cleared for another customs procedure or for home use, the goods acquire the tax status applicable to that other customs procedure or home use. For instance, imported goods cleared for warehousing are tax free until cleared for home use at the end of the warehousing period which renders the goods tax due.
- 3.6 For the customs control of persons, the Bill determines the procedural requirements that must be complied with when persons enter or leave the Republic. Such persons are required to be customs processed and to declare their accompanied and unaccompanied baggage, excluding certain personal effects, by submitting to Customs at the place of entry or exit a declaration containing certain personal, travel and accompanied baggage information.
- 3.7 The Bill requires certain persons active in the customs environment to be registered or licensed for purposes of the Bill. These include importers and exporters, importer or exporters' agents, carriers, carriers' agents and customs brokers. Certain premises such as cargo and passenger terminals, cargo depots, customs warehouses, etc., actively used in the customs environment are also required to be licensed.
- 3.8 The task to administer and enforce the Bill is assigned to the Commissioner of the South African Revenue Services who must for this purpose designate SARS officials as customs officers to exercise the powers and duties assigned to customs officers in terms of the Bill.
  - (a) Amongst these powers are access to and inspection and search of premises, vessels, aircraft, railway carriages, vehicles, stopping and searching of persons, inspection and sampling of goods, investigative powers, powers of arrest, carrying of arms and ammunitions and border control functions.

- (b) Other important powers assigned to Customs include the detention, seizure and confiscation of goods and the removal of goods to state warehouses when goods are dealt with in breach of the Bill. Goods removed to a state warehouse may eventually be sold to cover outstanding taxes and costs

3.9 As mentioned above, the Bill facilitates the implementation of other legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating the import or export of certain goods and for that reason direct powers are assigned to Customs to detain and deal with goods categorised as prohibited, restricted or sectorally controlled goods. Provision is made for the detention, seizure and forfeiture of such goods as well as for circumstances in which detentions or seizures may or must be terminated. The Bill also provides for the detention of suspected counterfeit goods and the procedures to be followed when such goods are detained.

3.10 The Bill further establishes mechanisms for the internal reconsideration of decisions taken in terms of the Bill, the proposed Customs Duty Act and the Excise Duty Act, and for the resolution of disputes arising from the implementation of these Acts. Included here are procedures for administrative appeals and alternative dispute resolution.

3.11 Judicial matters covered by the Bill include offences in terms of the Bill, additional punitive powers for courts in criminal proceedings, jurisdictional matters and the “name and shame” publication of the names of offenders. The Bill distinguishes between two categories of offences namely more serious Category 1 offences, which include diversions of goods and other fraudulent practices such as making false statements and using documents containing false or misleading information, and less serious Category 2 offences, which include performing acts without the required authorisation, permission or approval of Customs. Persons convicted of offences in terms of the Bill are liable to imprisonment or a fine set out in the Bill.

3.12 The Bill also provides for a system of administrative penalties that may be imposed by Customs for breaches of the Act. In the Bill a distinction is made between prosecutable and non-prosecutable breaches. In the case of non-prosecutable breaches, fixed amount penalties may be imposed and in the case of prosecutable breaches, prosecution avoidance penalties may be paid by offenders who want to avoid criminal prosecution.

3.13 Provision is also made for persons benefiting from faulty duty determinations to voluntarily disclose such faulty duty determinations in exchange for an undertaking by the Commissioner not to institute criminal proceedings or to impose administrative penalties.

3.14 Miscellaneous matters dealt with in the Bill include regulation and rule making powers of the Minister and the Commissioner respectively; condonation for non-compliance with rules, conditions or requirements; methods of submission of documents to Customs; record keeping; extension or shortening of time periods specified in the Bill; the granting of exemptions, authorisations, permissions etc., as well as the factors to be taken into account when considering the granting of such exemptions, authorisations or permissions. The Bill also limits the liability of the state, the Commissioner and customs officers for decisions or actions in terms of the Bill. Finally, provision is made for transitional provisions and the repeal of current customs legislation.

6. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 6.1 The State Law Advisers and SARS are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 6.2 The State Law Advisers are further of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
