PUBLIC CONSULTATION WORKSHOPS ON DRAFT MARKET CONDUCT POLICY FRAMEWORK

---

National Treasury published the discussion document “Treating Customers Fairly in the Financial Sector: A Draft Market Conduct Policy Framework for South Africa” in December 2014. The document sets out a proposed approach to strengthening and improving market conduct regulation for financial institutions in South Africa, to ensure that customers are treated fairly. This is part of the Twin Peaks reform of financial sector regulation. Comments are invited on the document until 8 April.

The following public workshops on the discussion document will be held:

Wednesday 11 March 2015 11: 00 – 14:00	Cape Town  ASISA offices Newlands www.asisa.org.za
Tuesday 17 March 09:00 – 12:00	Johannesburg  DBSA offices 1258 Lever Road, Midrand www.dbsa.org

To register, please email kershia.singh@treasury.gov.za and indicate which workshop you will be attending.

The discussion document and related Twin Peaks information can be found at <http://www.treasury.gov.za/public%20comments/FSR2014/>
