Vote purpose

Provide the support services required by Parliament to fulfil its constitutional functions, assist political parties represented in Parliament to secure administrative support and service constituents, and provide members of Parliament with the necessary facilities.

Mandate

Parliament's mandate is based on the provisions of chapter 4 of the Constitution, which establishes Parliament and sets out its functions. Parliament is elected to represent the people, ensure government by the people under the Constitution and represent the interests of provinces in the national sphere of government. Members of Parliament elect the president, pass legislation, scrutinise and oversee executive action. The parliamentary process provides a national forum for the public to consider issues and express their views.
