Changes to indicators and targets published in the 2011 ENE

The Department of Public Works is the overall coordinator of the expanded public works programme and is responsible for determining the targets for full-time equivalent jobs created for all the respective sector departments that implement related programmes. As one of the participating sector departments, the Department of Tourism submits its annual expanded public works programme expansion plan and full-time equivalent job targets to the Department of Public Works for discussion and analysis before it is finalised. The full-time equivalent jobs targets for participating sector departments get adjusted (decreased or increased) in line with the analysis of the expanded public works programme expansion plans, and are based on the ability and readiness of the departmental programmes to deliver on their targets. In line with this, the Department of Tourism's target for full-time equivalent jobs created for 2011/12 has been adjusted downwards from 5 270 to 4 531.

Mid-year progress

Among the department's priorities is promoting the transformation of the tourism industry as well as the participation and growth of small, medium and micro enterprises. To ensure the implementation of its transformation mandate, the department has a programme to encourage public sector organisations to leverage off state resources to encourage compliance with the Tourism BEE Charter and Scorecard. In line with this, the department has already conducted 8 road shows with provincial supply chain management units this year. 3 BEE road shows were also held in Free State, Western Cape and KwaZulu-Natal to promote transformation in the tourism sector.

To support rural development, the department aims to ensure the geographic spread of tourism that includes tourism in rural areas and involves rural communities. 2 tourism products in rural and less visited provinces were supported during the period under review. The department also has interventions to facilitate, guide and support tourism product development and is supporting the development of tourism products in rural and less visited provinces. As part of the department's work to improve the competitiveness of the tourism sector in South Africa, in the period under review a global competitiveness programme consultation report was completed and a master plan framework developed using provincial strategies sourced from provinces. As a labour intensive industry with a high level of competition globally, tourism needs a competitive skills base. To increase competitiveness in the sector, the department has a programme for skills and capacity development. As part of the programme, 150 unemployed graduates and out-of-school youth were placed for experiential learning, and 400 young people took part in a chefs training programme.
