2. Review of the current budget year

Sport and Recreation

Participation in sport and recreation is promoted by means of conducting recreation festivals for the aged, for the youth and for people with physical disabilities and renovating and building of sport facilities. The department is increasing awareness of participation in sport and recreation by means of honouring of sportsmen and sportswomen in the province and awareness campaigns of the 2010 Soccer Bid, the 2005 Gold Panning Championships, the 2006 All Africa Games, the 2007 Netball World Championships, and the Olympic Games. Promoting of healthy minds and bodies by means of the facilitation of the participation of provincial athletes in the SA Games. Effective sport and recreation administration in the province as well as transformation and development by means of Grant-in-aid to federations and macro bodies, as well as capacity building of sport officials and administrators.

Library and Information

Provide library facilities and promote reading awareness by establishing one library facility, renovating 3 library facilities and hosting of 5 awareness and promotional events. Establishing one archival building for the recording and safe keeping of records and information and implementing the Provincial Archives Legislation.

Cultural Affairs

The department is completing the translation of 30 documents in Siswati and Isindebele conducting bible reviews 8 books, and reviewing 520 geographical names for change in order to promote the importance of multi-lingualism. The department is promoting moral regeneration and cultural and religious tolerance by means of the year-end religious festival, 2 provincial build-up events towards the National Day of Reconciliation, co-ordinating the Moral Regeneration Movement and the activities of the Religious Task Team.

The department looks to renovate cultural villages and campsites namely Kgodwana campsite, Langeloop cultural village, Delmas campsite and Nkululeko Youth Centre towards promoting and preserving of living culture in the province. The department is continuing to nurture and showcase artistic talent by means of arts and culture festivals, supporting of choral music and capacity building of artists and crafters. Promoting and preserving of the heritage of Mpumalanga Province by means of the establishment of 2 cenotaphs, management of Pilgrim's Rest Museum and Barberton Museum, the celebration of the heritage month were 30 schools would be targeted in the build-up event towards the Provincial Heritage Day Celebration.

Challenges

The lack of financial and human resources to adequately promote exposure to elite sport. Adequately resource and maintain existing libraries and to fund the Constitutional mandate with regard to public libraries. Conduct heritage research, establish additional provincial museum services and record certain customs sites and indigenous knowledge. Adequately implement the National Language Policy Framework and improve the conditions of the cultural villages and campsites.

3. Outlook for the coming budget year 2004/2005

The department will continue to promote sport and recreation for the youth, the aged, women and people with disabilities to increase mass participation. R1 million has been set-aside for this purpose. The department looks to build the capacity of sports officers and to provide sports equipment to farm and rural communities. Financial support will be provided to sport and recreation federations towards the transformation and development of sport and recreation in the province.

The department will embark on the preservation of the heritage of the province by establishing one cenotaph, contribute towards the celebration of South Africa's 10 years of democracy and the celebration of the heritage month. The department will continue with the establishment of libraries to promote the importance of reading in Mpumalanga Province.

The department will continue to promote multi-lingualism, mother language, moral regeneration and cultural and religious tolerance by means of the translation of documents into Siswati and Isindebele, the review of geographical names, the celebration of national calendar days, the co-ordination of the moral regeneration movement and the end of year religious festival. To promote and preserve the cultural heritage of the province, the department will continue with the renovation and maintenance of cultural villages and campsites. The department will also engage in the identification and nurturing of artistic talent in the province by means of arts and culture festivals, capacity building and exhibition projects.
