Gauteng Budget 2014/15

Gauteng is home to just under a quarter of South Africa's population, and contributes 36 per cent of the country's Gross Domestic Product (GDP). Because of its central location, it is also a gateway to other provinces and the rest of the African continent in terms of movement of people and goods. Increased economic activity through the public and private sectors create opportunities for individuals to find shelter and make their livelihoods in this province. This is demonstrated by year-on-year increase in the number of learners seeking education spaces in our schools. According to the 2013 Mid-year population estimates released by Statistics South Africa, Gauteng population has increased slightly from 12.4 million to 12.7 million. This invariably puts pressure on the delivery of social services and economic infrastructure.

It is for this reason that the Gauteng Provincial Government (GPG) continues to work on strategies that are aimed at yielding socio-economic benefits for all. Our response to addressing challenges such as unemployment, poverty and inequality are central to our business. There are continued and concerted efforts to accelerate service delivery by implementing programmes and projects that lead to improved quality of life of our communities. These include food security, youth employment, Zibuseni, Bana Pele, Secondary School Improvement Programme (SSIP) and Violence Against Women and Children (VAWAC), to name but a few.

As a way of demonstrating our continued commitment to improved social service delivery, Health, Education and Social Development account for the lion's share of the 2014 Medium-Term Expenditure Framework (MTEF) budget, and lays the foundation for the improvement of education outcomes, provide quality healthcare and building a hedge of protection for our vulnerable and affected communities. Gauteng is indeed a better place to live in and will continue to be as we direct our energies to addressing challenges that confront us and sustain the momentum of delivering quality services.

This document provides the details of the 2014 MTEF budget and I trust that you will find it useful and informative.

Gauteng begroting 2014/15

Gauteng is die tuiste van net minder as 'n kwart van Suid-Afrika se bevolking en dra 36 persent van die land se Bruto Binnelandse Produk (BBP) by. As gevolg van sy sentrale ligging is dit ook 'n poort na ander provinsies en die res van die Afrika-vasteland wat die beweging van mense en goedere betref. Groter ekonomiese aktiwiteit deur die openbare en die private sektor skep geleenthede vir individue om skuiling te kry en 'n bestaan te maak in hierdie provinsie. Dit blyk uit die jaarlikse toename in die aantal leerders wat onderwysplekke in ons skole wil hê. Volgens Statistieke Suid-Afrika se Midjaarbevolkingsramings vir 2013 het Gauteng se bevolking effens toegeneem van 12.4 miljoen tot 12.7 miljoen. Dit plaas noodwendig druk op die lewering van maatskaplike dienste en ekonomiese infrastruktuur.

Dit is om hierdie rede dat die Gautengse Provinciale Regering (GPR) steeds werk aan strategieë wat daarop gemik is om sosio-ekonomiese voordele vir almal te lewer. Ons reaksie op uitdagings soos werkloosheid, armoede en ongelykheid is 'n kernelement van ons besigheid. Daar is voortgesette en gesamentlike pogings om dienslewering te versnel deur die implementering van programme en projekte wat tot beter lewensgehalte van ons gemeenskappe lei. Dit sluit in voedselsekuriteit, jeugindiensneming, Zivuseni, Bana Pele, die Sekondêre Skoolverbeteringsprogram (SSVP) en Geweld teen Vroue en Kinders (GTVK), om net enkeles te noem.

As 'n manier om ons voortgesette verbintenis tot verbeterde maatskaplike dienslewering te toon, maak Gesondheid, Onderwys en Maatskaplike Ontwikkeling die leeuaandeel van 2014 se Mediumtermyn-bestedingsraamwerk (MTBR)-begroting uit, en dit lê die grondslag vir die verbetering van onderwysuitkomste, die lewering van gesondheidsorg van gehalte en die bou van 'n skans van beskerming vir ons kwesbare en geaffekteerde gemeenskappe.

Gauteng is inderdaad 'n beter plek om in te woon en sal so voortgaan terwyl ons ons energie aanwend om uitdagings waaroor ons te staan kom die hoof te bied en die momentum van die lewering van gehaltdienste volhou.

Hierdie dokument verskaf besonderhede van die MTBR-begroting vir 2014 en ek vertrou dat u dit nuttig en insiggewend sal vind.
