with the rules as at the date of the decree of divorce or the decree for the dissolution of a customary marriage.

(c) Prior to determining the amount of the member's pension interest that is assigned to the former spouse, the amount of the member's pension interest referred to in paragraph (b) shall first be reduced in accordance with the rules by any amount of the member's pension interest which, in a previous divorce or a previous dissolution of a customary marriage, was paid over or awarded to another party.

(d) The amount of any pension benefit that is subsequently payable to the member in terms of the rules will be reduced by the equivalent of the amount of the share of the pension interest of the member which—

(i) was deemed to accrue to the member as a benefit in advance of the benefit ordinarily payable in terms of the rules; and

(ii) was assigned to the member's former spouse, less the amount of any additional voluntary contributions, if any, paid by the member to the Fund from time to time, and accumulated over the period from the date on which payment to the former spouse or transfer to the approved fund as referred to in paragraph (e) took place to the date on which the member first became entitled to a part or the whole of the balance of the benefit, with interest as the Board from time to time deems appropriate.

(e) The Fund shall, within 45 days of the submission of the court order by the former spouse of a member, request the former spouse to elect whether the amount to be deducted must be—

(i) paid directly to the former spouse; or
(ii) transferred to an approved retirement fund on behalf of the former spouse.

(f) The former spouse shall, within 120 days of being requested to make a choice—

(i) inform the Fund of the manner in which the amount referred to in paragraph (e) must be dealt with; and
(ii) if the former spouse chooses that the amount must be paid to the former spouse directly, provide the Fund with the details that are necessary to effect the payment; or
(iii) if the former spouse chooses that the amount must be transferred to an approved pension fund on his or her behalf, provide the Fund with the details of that approved retirement fund.

(g) The Fund shall pay or transfer the amount within 60 days of being informed of the manner in which the amount shall be dealt with in accordance with the former spouse's choice.

(h) In the event that the former spouse fails to make a choice or identify the approved retirement fund to which the amount should be transferred within the period referred to in paragraph (f), the Fund shall pay the amount directly to the former spouse within 30 days of the expiry of that period.

(i) Despite paragraph (h), in the event that the Fund cannot reasonably ascertain the manner in which the payment to the former spouse shall be effected, the Fund shall retain the amount plus interest as determined by the Board in the Fund, until such time as details of the manner in which that payment shall be effected is made available to the Fund by the member, the former spouse or any other person whom the Fund is satisfied has the necessary authority and capacity to instruct the Fund in that respect.
