DATE OF PUBLICATION: 09 NOVEMBER 2012

Whether Sars intends investigating allegations of tax fraud contained in the charge sheet of a certain case (details furnished); if not, why not; if so, what are the relevant details pertaining to the investigation?

REPLY:

Due to the secrecy provisions contained in the Tax Administration Act, 2011, SARS is prohibited from disclosing any taxpayer information to any person other than a SARS official. SARS is, therefore, unfortunately not in a position to respond to the above request.
