Information on projects funded by the New Development Bank are listed on the Bank's website. The Honourable Member and members of the public are encouraged to visit the New Development Bank website to obtain information on the work of the Bank <https://www.ndb.int/projects/list-of-all-projects/>.

The originator of any project that is funded by the Bank has to ensure that consultation occurs with the relevant stakeholders.

The National Treasury, in general, strongly supports the disclosure policies of information to institutions and entities in which it is a shareholder and has done so with the NDB.
